

ANZUS in Crisis

Alliance Management in International Affairs

Edited by
Jacob Bercovitch

Senior Lecturer in International Relations University of Canterbury, New Zealand

Foreword by Robert O'Neill

formerly Director of the International Institute for Strategic Studies

M
MACMILLAN
PRESS

Contents

List of Tables and Figures	ix
Foreword by Robert O'Neill	xi
Acknowledgements	xvii
Notes on the Contributors	xviii

PART I

1 Introduction Jacob Bercovitch	1
2 Alliances in International Relations: Aspects of Performance and Problems of Management Jacob Bercovitch	6
3 The Evolution of ANZUS Roderic Alley	29

PART II

THE AMERICAN PERSPECTIVE

4 The ANZUS Alliance and United States Security Interests William T. Tow	55
5 The ANZUS Crisis: US Policy Implications and Responses Henry S. Albinski	83

THE AUSTRALIAN PERSPECTIVE

6 ANZUS Reconsidered: the Domestic Politics of an Alliance Murray Goot and Peter King	105
7 ANZUS in Australia's Foreign and Security Policies Coral Bell	136

THE NEW ZEALAND PERSPECTIVE

- 8 Politics, Public Opinion and International Crisis:
the ANZUS Issue in New Zealand Politics 160
Keith Jackson and Jim Lamare
- 9 New Zealand's National Interests, Defence Capabilities
and ANZUS 191
Steve Hoadley

PART III

- 10 The ANZUS Alliance: Alternative Perspectives and Priorities Richard Kennaway 217
- 11 Conclusion 240
Jacob Bercovitch
- Appendix 1: The ANZUS Treaty* 247
- Appendix 2: Ship Visits to New Zealand* 250
- Index* 261