

Africanizing Knowledge

African Studies Across the Disciplines

Toyin Falola and Christian Jennings editors

Transaction Publishers
New Brunswick (U.S.A.) and London (U.K.)

Contents

Introduction	1
I. Africanizing African History
1. From African Historiographies to an African Philosophy of History	13
E.S. Atieno-Odhiambo
2. Ancestral Slaves and Diasporic Tourists: Retelling History by Reversing Movement in a Counter-nationalist Vodun Festival from Benin	65
Peter Sutherland
3. Called to Hear the Word of God: Musa Kongola's Autobiography	85
Gregory H. Maddox
4. "What Have We, Jo-Ugenya, Not Done? We Have Even Killed an Arab/Swahili Hermaphrodite": Constructing a History of the Jo-Ugenya-Arab/Swahili War by Means of a Saying	103
Meshack Owino
5. Lexical Borrowings as Pathways to Senegal's Past and Present	125
Fallou Ngom
6. Reconstructing Modern African Business History	149
Alusine Jalloh

II. African Creative Expression in Context

7. African Art: New Genres and Transformational Philosophies
Christopher Adejumo 165
8. The Role of Traditional Music in the Writing of Cultural History: The Case of the Abaluyia of Western Kenya
Maurice Amutabi 191
9. The Global History of African Music:
The Kenyan Song “Malaika”
Ian Eagleson 209
10. Telling Africa’s Past in Literature:
Whose Story Is It Anyway?
Oyekan Owomoyela 219
11. Representation of a Colonial Reality:
World War I in La Victoire en chantant and Amhoullé, l’Enfant peul
Edgard Sankara 239

III. Writing Colonial Africa

12. “Good Men in Africa”? From Missionaries to Mercenaries
Barbara Harlow 251
13. The Horror of Reproduction in Rider Haggard’s
King Solomon’s Mines
Eve Dunbar 263
14. Performing Trauma: The Body as Site of
(De)colonization in Tsitsi Dangarembga’s
Nervous Conditions
Jennifer Williams 273

15.	Child Abuse or Conflict of Interest? Maryse Conde's Autobiographical Writings	289
	Hal Wylie
16.	Colonization or Globalization? Ernst Udet's Account of East Africa from 1932	297
	Nina Berman
17.	State and Civil Society in Local and Global Contexts: Colonial Contact and Bourgeois Reforms among the Yoruba of Nigeria	315
	Saheed A. Adejumobi
IV. Scholars and Their Work
18.	Stolen Places: Archaeology and the Politics of Identity in the Later Prehistory of the Kalahari	345
	James Denbow
19.	The Guest is a Hot Meal: Questioning Researchers' Identities in Mande Studies	375
	Clemens Zobel and Jan Jansen
20.	Writing Yoruba Female Farmers into History: A Study of the Food Production Sector	387
	Olatunji Ojo
21.	Packaging Scholarship	405
	David Henige
22.	Mindsapes of Politics in Africa: Twixt Remembering and Forgetting	419
	Peyi Soyinka-Airewele
	Contributors	437
	Index	443