Administering Education in Namibia: the colonial period to the present

Cynthia Cohen

Namibia Scientific Society
Windhoek

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements . . . . . xvii
Foreword . . . . . xix
Acronyms and abbreviations . . . . . xxii
Tables . . . . . xxvi
Maps . . . . . xxx
Nomenclature . . . . . xxxi

SECTION I CONTEXTUALISING THE STUDY . . . 1

1 INTRODUCTION . . . . . 3
General background . . . . . 3
Statement of the problem . . . . . 4
Study objectives and relevance . . . . . 5
Methodology and sources . . . . . 7
Limitations of the study . . . . . 8
The statistical data . . . . . 8
Political change . . . . . 9
Outline . . . . . 11
Notes . . . . . 14

2 EDUCATIONAL ADMINISTRATION AS A VEHICLE FOR EDUCATIONAL REFORM . . . . . 15
Introduction . . . . . 15
Educational administration as a field of study . . . 16
What is educational administration? . . . . . 17
The demands on educational administration in developing countries . . . . . 18
The activities of educational administrators . . . . 20
Who are the administrators? . . . . . 21
What skills do education administrators need? . 22
How can training help improve educational administration? . . . . . 24
How has training failed to improve administration? . . . . . 26
Proposals for training programmes . . . . . 28
Conclusion . . . . . 31

Notes . . . . . 33

3 THE HISTORICAL/POLITICAL FRAMEWORK . . . . . 35
Introduction . . . . . 35
The first colonial phase: 1884 – 1915 . . . . . 35
German rule . . . . . 35
White settlement . . . . . 37
The establishment of reserves . . . . . 38
Black resistance . . . . . 38
The end of German rule . . . . . 39
The second colonial phase: 1920 – 1990 . . . . . 40
Consolidation of South African rule: 1920s and 1930s . . . . . 40
Early abuses of power . . . . . 40
Intensification of incorporation: 1940 – 1969 . 42
The United Nations . . . . . 42
Outcome on South West Africa of the South African National Party victory . . . 43
Breaching the mandate . . . . . 44
United Nations action . . . . . 47
Further black resistance . . . . . 48
The transitional period: 1970 – 1989 . . . . . 49
Concerted international action . . . . . 49
External influences on events . . . . . 50
Attempts at internal settlement . . . . . 51
The role of the Western Contact Group . . 52
Removing apartheid laws . . . . . 53
Increased pressure on South Africa . . . . . 54
Events leading to independence . . . . . 55
Conclusion . . . . . 57
Notes . . . . . 58

SECTION II FORMAL EDUCATION IN NAMIBIA: 1884 – 1969 . . . . . 59

4 EDUCATION DURING THE GERMAN OCCUPATION: 1884 – 1915 . . . . . 61
Introduction . . . . . 61
The role of the missions in providing education . . . . . 62

Missionary education for blacks and coloureds . . . . . 63
The education of the black population . . . 64
The Rhenish Mission . . . . . 64
The Finnish Mission . . . . . 65
The Catholic Church . . . . . 65
The education of the coloured population . . . . . 66
Critique of missionary education for blacks and coloureds . . . . . 67
Employment opportunities for blacks and coloureds . . . . . 68
The government's role in the education of blacks and coloureds . . . . . 69
White education . . . . . 70
The control of white schools . . . . . 72
Overview of white education . . . . . 73
Education and job opportunities for the indigenous peoples in German East Africa . . . . . 74
Conclusion . . . . . 79
Notes . . . . . 80

5 EDUCATION UNDER SOUTH AFRICAN RULE: 1915–1969 . . . . . 82
Introduction . . . . . 82
Legislative developments in education: 1915 – 1926 83
First moves towards government control . . . . 83
The Education Proclamation of 1921 . . . . 83
The 1923 Education Conference . . . . . 84
The Education Proclamation of 1926 . . . . 85
Educational provision: 1915 – 1940 . . . . . 86
Black education . . . . . 86
Coloured education . . . . . 87
White education . . . . . 88
Teacher and technical training . . . . . 88
Events in South Africa: the late 1940s and early 1950s . . . . . 90
The Eiselen Commission of 1949 . . . . . 90

The Bantu Education Act of 1953 . . . . . 91
Education in South West Africa: the 1950s . . . . . 91
The administration of education . . . . . 91
Black education . . . . . 92
Coloured education . . . . . 94
White education . . . . . 94
School inspection . . . . . 94
The implementation of Bantu Education . . . 95
The 1958 Commission of Enquiry into Non-European education . . . . . 95
Comparison of black, coloured and white education . . . . . 98
Black education . . . . . 98
Coloured education . . . . . 101
Summary . . . . . 103
White education . . . . . 103
The entrenchment of Bantu Education: the 1960s . . . . . 104
The Education Ordinance of 1962 . . . . . 104
The Odendaal Commission of 1962 – 1963 . . . 106
The administrative structure of education . . . 107
Educational advantages between the ethnic groups compared . . . . . 108
Administrative changes in educational control . 112
Conclusion . . . . . 113
Notes . . . . . 115

SECTION III THE ROAD TO INDEPENDENCE: EDUCATIONAL DEVELOPMENTS IN THE 1970S AND 1980S . . . . . 119

6 THE 1970s . . . . . 121
Introduction . . . . . 121
The administrative structure . . . . . 122
Educational issues . . . . . 128
Changes to the system: an overview . . . . . 128
Teachers . . . . . 134
Teacher availability . . . . . 135
Teacher qualifications . . . . . 136

Teacher training provision . . . . . 138
Teacher salary differentials and entry requirements . . . . . 139
Technical and vocational training . . . . . 140
The role of the multinationals in education . . . 142
Adult education . . . . . 144
University training . . . . . 145
Human resource supply and employment trends . . . . . 147
Conclusion . . . . . 151
Notes . . . . . 153

7 TRENDS IN FORMAL EDUCATIONAL PROVISION: THE 1980s . . . . . 156
Introduction . . . . . 156
Formal education provision . . . . . 157
Developments in primary and secondary education . . . . . 157
The role of the private sector . . . . . 161
The teaching force . . . . . 162
Teacher availability . . . . . 162
Teacher qualifications . . . . . 165
Teacher training provision . . . . . 171
Teacher training institutions and the Academy for Tertiary Education . . . . . 171
Recent changes at the Academy . . . . 178
Teacher supply . . . . . 180
Central Government support for teacher training . . . . . 182
The role of the private sector and other organisations in assisting teacher trainees . . . . 183
Conclusion . . . . . 187
Notes . . . . . 189

SECTION IV EDUCATIONAL ADMINISTRATION: THE FINAL DECADE OF SOUTH AFRICAN RULE . . 193

8 AN EVER-EXPANDING EDUCATION BUREAUCRACY . . . 195
Introduction . . . . . 195

Governmental structure . . . . . 196
Legislative developments affecting the educational administrative structure . . . . . 198
Overview of the educational system . . . . . 201
Educational expenditure . . . . . 202
The Department of National Education: organisational structure, staffing, and training, 1988 . . . . 205
Structure of the DNE . . . . . 205
Staffing . . . . . 206
Racism in job allocation . . . . . 207
Sexism in job allocation . . . . . 208
Training . . . . . 209
Training at head office and the Academy . 210
Administrative training within schools . . . 213
Critique of training . . . . . 214
The ten ethnic Directorates of Education and Culture . . . . . 216
Structure and staffing . . . . . 216
Ethnic tendencies in staffing patterns . . . 219
Staff potential . . . . . 221
Overview . . . . . 223
Training . . . . . 224
Critique of training . . . . . 228
Conclusion . . . . . 228
Notes . . . . . 230

SECTION V PREPARING FOR INDEPENDENCE: TRAINING PROGRAMMES IN AFRICA AND ABROAD . . . . . 233

9 INTERNATIONAL ASSISTANCE TO POST-SECONDARY EDUCATION TRAINING (1): GOVERNMENTAL AND NON-GOVERNMENTAL ORGANISATIONS AND INSTITUTIONS . . . . . 235
Introduction . . . . . 235
Limitations to the data . . . . . 237
Swapo's role in educational provision at school level . . . . . 239

Swapo's teacher training programmes and their output . . . . . 241
The Inset Programme . . . . . 242
The Integrated Teacher Training Programme (ITTP) . . . . . 242
The United Kingdom Teacher Training Programme for Namibian Teachers of English . . . . . 243
Namibians studying in the United Kingdom . . . . 245
The Commonwealth Secretariat's Fellowship and Training Programme . . . . . 250
Training assistance from the United States . . . . . 252
Namibians studying in Canada . . . . . 254
West German support to Namibians . . . . . 254
Namibians and the Nordic countries . . . . . 256
Finland . . . . . 256
Sweden . . . . . 257
Denmark . . . . . 257
Norway . . . . . 258
Summary . . . . . 258
Notes . . . . . 260

10 INTERNATIONAL ASSISTANCE TO POST-SECONDARY EDUCATION TRAINING (2): UNITED NATIONS PROGRAMMES . . . . . 264
Introduction . . . . . 264
United Nations-assisted training programmes . . . 265
The United Nations Fund for Namibia . . . . . 265
The Nationhood Programme . . . . . 266
Projects under the Nationhood Programme . . . . . 267
Training in education . . . . . 267
Public administration and public enterprise management . . . . . 273
United Nations Institute for Namibia . . . . . 275
Diploma in Management and Development Studies . . . . . 277

Teacher Training/Upgrading Programme . . . . . 284
Educational, social and relief assistance . . . . . 286
The United Nations Educational and Training Programme for Southern Africa (UNETPSA) . . . 290
Training in educational administration: the International Institute for Educational Planning . . . . 292
The Namibian Extension Unit (NEU) . . . . . 294
Overview of the United Nations training programmes . . . . . 296
Conclusion . . . . . 297
Notes . . . . . 299

SECTION VI THE ZIMBABWEAN EXPERIENCE: EDUCATION AND EDUCATIONAL ADMINISTRATION . . . . . 303

11 ZIMBABWEAN EDUCATION AND ITS ADMINISTRATION DURING COLONIAL RULE . . . . . 305
Introduction . . . . . 305
The legacy of colonial education . . . . . 306
The development of a dual system of education . . . . . 306
The early years . . . . . 306
The 1940s to 1979 . . . . . 307
Tertiary education . . . . . 312
The teaching force . . . . . 313
The education structure: organisation, staffing, and training patterns . . . . . 317
Organisation . . . . . 317
Staffing . . . . . 318
Training in administration . . . . . 321
Human resources weighed against administrative needs . . . . . 323
The internal skills' supply . . . . . 323
The external skills' supply . . . . . 326
Overview . . . . . 328
Conclusion . . . . . 329
Notes . . . . . 330

12 POST-INDEPENDENCE EDUCATIONAL ADMINISTRATION IN ZIMBABWE . . . . . 335
Introduction . . . . . 335
The educational structure . . . . . 336
Head office . . . . . 336
The Regional Offices . . . . . 336
Staffing policies and patterns . . . . . 339
Righting the colonial wrongs . . . . . 339
Trends within the Ministry of Education and Culture during the first year of independence . . . . . 341
Professional staff composition . . . . . 343
The teaching force: source of new civil servants . 346
Expatriate policy . . . . . 347
The outcome of change . . . . . 349
Staff training . . . . . 352
The need to train . . . . . 352
The types of training offered . . . . . 353
Specialised technical and professional training . . . . . 354
Rural development-oriented training . . . . 355
Administrative and managerial training . . 355
Zimbabwe Institute of Public Administration and Management (ZIPAM) . . . . . 357
A critique of training . . . . . 357
Conclusion . . . . . 360
Notes . . . . . 362

SECTION VII NAMIBIA: ASSESSMENTS AND POST-INDEPENDENCE DEVELOPMENTS . . . . . 367

13 ADMINISTRATION IN NAMIBIA — WHERE TO NOW? . 369
Introduction and rationale . . . . . 369
Research findings . . . . . 370
Educational administration in Namibia . . . . . 370
Educational administrators . . . . . 372
Namibians trained abroad . . . . . 375
Implications of the research findings . . . . . 376
Insights from Zimbabwe . . . . . 378

Namibia's white civil servants and the issue of independence . . . . . 381
Post-independence structural and staffing trends in educational administration . . . . . 385
The educational administrative structure . . . 385
Staffing . . . . . 387
Potential problems . . . . . 389
Expatriates . . . . . 392
Directions for further action and research . . . . . 393
The Office of the Prime Minister . . . . . 393
Research into training needs . . . . . 396
Educational administration training . . . . . 397
Training trainers . . . . . 397
Country-specific and relevant course materials . . . . . 398
Conclusion . . . . . 399
Notes . . . . . 400

Appendix A: Ethnic distribution of posts within the Department of National Education, 1988 . . . . . 403
Notes . . . . . 405

Appendix B: Ethnic distribution of posts within the ten directorates, 1988 . . . . . 406
Notes . . . . . 409

Select Bibliography . . . . . 411
Selected Index . . . . . 441