

Obama and Kenya

CONTESTED HISTORIES AND THE POLITICS OF BELONGING

Matthew Carotenuto and Katherine Luongo

Ohio University Research in International Studies
Global and Comparative Studies Series No. 15
Ohio University Press
Athens

Contents

List of Illustrations

ix

Acknowledgments

xi

Abbreviations

xv

Time Line:

Charting the Obama and Kenya Story

xvii

Introduction:

Obama and Kenya in the Classroom

1

PART I: OBAMA AND KENYA

CHAPTER 1

Discovering Obama in Kenya

9

CHAPTER 2

Representations of Kenya:

Myth and Reality

26

CHAPTER 3

The Obama Family:

Ethnicity and the Politics of Belonging in Kenya

43

vii

PART II: CONTESTED HISTORIES AND THE POLITICS OF BELONGING

CHAPTER 4

The Politics of Condemnation:
The American Right's Reactions to Obama's Roots in Kenya

73

CHAPTER 5

The Politics of Celebration:
Ethnic Grandeur and Obama's Heroic Embrace

96

CHAPTER 6

Political Violence and History at the Ballot Box

116

CHAPTER 7

Obama for Africa or Africa for Obama?

142

Epilogue

Tuko Pamoja: We Are Together

157

Notes

169

Glossary

217

Bibliography

219

Index

237

Illustrations

Maps

1.	Kenya	xix
2.	Western Kenya	xx

Figures

1.1.	Kenyan critique of Obamanania from East African cartoonist GADO, 2008	17
2.1.	US president Teddy Roosevelt with his “trophy” elephant in Meru, Kenya, 1909	26
3.1.	First delegates conference of the new Luo Union (East Africa), 1953	54
3.2.	Ofafa Memorial Hall, Kisumu	58
4.1–2.	Public condemnations of the Obama-Kenya connection in the United States	75
5.1.	“Congratulations Barack Obama” leso (wrap)	103
5.2.	Senator Obama Kogelo Secondary School	107
5.3.	Members of Luo Council of Elders, 2009	109
5.4.	Luo Council of Elders chairman Riaga Ogallo with LCE members, June 18, 2009	112
7.1–2.	African merchants selling Obama wares in Djenné, Mali, and Accra, Ghana	144
7.3–4.	President Obama in Senegal and Michelle Obama in Tanzania, 2013	149
7.5–6.	Main building of Kogelo Village Resort and a local business at main trading center, May 2013	151
E.1.	President Obama at Safaricom Indoor Arena in Nairobi, Kenya, July 26, 2015	166