

FOOD POLICY

Frameworks for Analysis and Action

EDITED BY
CHARLES K. MANN
AND BARBARA HUDDLESTON

INDIANA UNIVERSITY PRESS • BLOOMINGTON

CONTENTS

PREFACE

Charles K. Mann

ix

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

xi

INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY

1

Charles K. Mann and Barbara Huddleston

Part I: Frameworks for Food Policy Analysis

A Framework for Food Policy Analysis

C. Peter Timmer

17

Production Aspects of Food Policy

The Role of Crops in Food Systems

Arturo A. Gomez

26

Livestock in Agricultural Systems

John A. Pino

35

Women and Agriculture

Joan Mencher

39

Nutrition Aspects of Food Policy

Integrating Nutrition in Food Policy Analysis

Alan Berg

50

An Analytical Framework for Assessing Nutrition Effects of Policies and Programs Per Pinstrup-Andersen	55
Explorations of Food Consumption and Nutritional Status: Bangladesh Lincoln C. Chen	67
Explorations of Food Consumption and Nutritional Status: Turkey Hasan Gençağa	80
Nutrition Surveillance and Food Policy David O. Dapice	94
Political Aspects of Food Policy
Policy Analysis and Policy Reform: A Possible New Role for International Aid Agencies Marcelo Selowsky	102
The Political Framework for Price Policy Decisions Robert H. Bates	106
Role of Political Contracts in Achieving Redistribution of Economic Rents George Delehanty	113
Trade Aspects of Food Policy
A Global Approach to Household Food Security Grahám Donaldson	117
Making Food Policy in a New International Environment G. Edward Schuh	126
Part II: Approaches to Developing National Food Policy Capabilities
Mobilizing the Will to Use the Framework
Food Policy Research and the Policy Process in the Third World Alberto Valdés	141
Developing Political Support for Food Policy Planning Maurice J. Williams	149

An Integrated Research Project Approach: Thailand

The Food Policy Analysis Project In Thailand: An Overview Snoh Unakul	156
The Integrated Research Project Approach and Its Results George E. Delehanty and Laurence D. Stifel	159
The Conceptual Framework for the Food Policy Analysis Project in Thailand Theodore Panayotou	166
Thailand: National Food Policy and the Role of External Agencies Kosit Panpiemras	177

An Operational Approach: Kenya

Bridging the Gap between Analysis and Action D. Ralph Campbell	183
The Role of the University David N. Ngugi	192

A Microcomputer-Focused Approach: Tunisia

Some Preliminary Observations on Microcomputer Use in Developing Countries David O. Dapice	198
Improving the Productivity of Food Policy Analysts: A Tale of Two Computers Charles K. Mann	203

Approaches to Management Training and Food Policy

People-Centered Development to Build Rural Institutions Gabino A. Mendoza	209
Training Needs of Mid-Level Food Policy Managers in Sub-Saharan Africa Barbara Huddleston	216
Using the Case Method to Improve Food Policy Charles K. Mann and Malcolm F. McPherson	227

Part III: The Future Agenda
Charles K. Mann and Barbara Huddleston	235
CONTRIBUTORS	238
INDEX	240