

MEDIATING MEANS AND FATE

A Socio-Political Analysis of Fertility and Demographic Change in Bamako, Mali

BY

SASKIA BRAND

BRILL
LEIDEN · BOSTON · KÖLN
2001

Table of Contents

Abbreviations used	x
Glossary	xi
Map of Bamako	xiii
Acknowledgements	xiv
Preface	xvi

PART ONE

1	Contextualizing Fertility
1.	Introduction	3
2.	The Issue of Population	5
3.	Towards a Whole Demography	9
4.	Mande Social Structures and Gendered Personhood	13
	Gendered personhood	15
5.	A Practice Approach	23
6.	Means and Fate	28
7.	Layout of the Book	32
2	Bamako and its Inhabitants
1.	Introduction	34
2.	Growth of the city	36
	Migration	42
3.	Socio-economic Developments	44
	Adolescence	48
4.	Work and Livelihood	51
5.	Housing and Living Arrangements	59
6.	Infrastructures for Health and Family Planning	62

PART TWO The Field of Social Relations

3	Marriage and Conjugal Relations
1.	Introduction	67
2.	Contracting a Marriage	68
	Partner choice	68
	The promise of marriage	73
	Tying up the marriage	76

- The civil procedure 80
 - The Final Stage: kònyò so 83
- 3. Change: a Dynamic Procedure 87
- 4. More Change: Generations at stake 93
- 5. Conjugal Relations 96
- 6. Discussion 101

- 4 Women Without Husbands: Choice or Force Majeure?
 - 1. Introduction 103
 - 2. Cases 104
 - 3. The Dissolution of Marriage: Procedures 114
 - 4. Meanings and Effects of the Single Status 119
 - 5. Strategies and Future Perspectives 126

- 5 Hidden Ways and Words of Women
 - 1. Introduction 132
 - 2. Coalitions and Competition 134
 - 3. Conflict Management 142
 - 4. Agency and the Supernatural 145
 - 5. After Word 158

PART THREE The Field of Fertility

- 6 Pregnancy and Delivery
 - 1. Introduction 163
 - Pregnant with Insecurity 164
 - 3. The Delivery 169
 - 4. Post Partum Rituals 175
 - Protection 175
 - The name-giving ceremony 179
 - After the naming 183
 - 5. Untimely Deaths 186
 - Frequency and medical causes 186
 - Perceptions of illness and loss 189
 - 6. Conclusion 191

- 7 Single Mothers
 - 1. Introduction 193
 - 2. Cases 194
 - 3. Romantically Involved? 210
 - 4. How it Happened 216
 - 5. Reactions 219
 - Where are the fathers? 223

6. Social blemish and legal consequences	226
7. Coping	230
8 The Politics and Practice of Fertility Regulation
1. Introduction	232
2. The worth of children	233
3. Sexuality Control & Indigenous Fertility Intervention	242
Sexuality control	242
Fertility intervention	246
4. Family Planning: Policies and Institutions	252
Population policy since 1960	252
Institutions for contraceptive supply and family planning services	256
Checking out the supply side: accessibility of services	262
5. Levels of Contraceptive use in Bamako	266
6. Mediating wishes and demands, means and fate	269
Non-users of contraception	273
Users of contraceptives	279
7. Fertility Strategies Compared	293

PART FOUR

9 Conclusions
1. Introduction	301
2. General Conclusions	301
3. Fertility Management	306
4. Policy Recommendations	310

Appendix Research Methodology

1. Introduction	313
2. Relations in the Field	313
Assistance	315
3. Research Methods	317
Baseline interviews	317
In-depth studies	317
Pharmacy survey	319
An appraisal of Family Planning Facilities	321
Analysis	321

References	323
------------	-----

Index	336
-------	-----