
Tourism and Indigenous Peoples

Edited by

Richard Butler
and Thomas Hinch

INTERNATIONAL THOMSON BUSINESS PRESS
I T P An International Thomson Publishing Company

London • Bonn • Boston • Johannesburg • Madrid • Melbourne • Mexico City • New York • P
Singapore • Tokyo • Toronto • Albany, NY • Belmont, CA • Cincinnati, OH • Detroit, MI

Contents

List of illustrations	vii
List of contributors	ix
Acknowledgements	xii

Part I: Introduction

- | | |
|--|---|
| • 1 Indigenous tourism: a common ground for discussion | 3 |
| Thomas Hinch and Richard Butler | |

Part II The Development Option

- | | |
|---|-----|
| Introduction to Part II | 22 |
| 2 Balinese homestays: an indigenous response to tourism opportunities | 27 |
| Geoffrey Wall and Veronica Long | |
| 3 Tourism employment in Bali: trends and implications | 49 |
| Judith Cukier | |
| 4 Toward sustainable tourism development: the case of Pond Inlet, NWT | 76 |
| Jacqueline Grekin and Simon Milne | |
| 5 The evolving role of tourist guides: the Nepali experience | 107 |
| Ghana Gurung, David Simmons and Patrick Devlin | |
| 6 Reservations and gambling: Native Americans and the diffusion of legalized gaming | 129 |
| Charles Stansfield | |

Part III: The Turbulence of Development
Introduction to Part III	150
7 Tourism and the Maori of Aotearoa, New Zealand C. Michael Hall	155
8 Anuha Island Resort, Solomon Islands: a case study of failure Trevor H.B. Sofield	176
9 Unable to see the forest for the trees: ecotourism development in Solomon Islands Brenda Rudkin and C. Michael Hall	203
10 Hunter-gatherer tourism in Thailand Erik Cohen	227
11 Cultural resistance and ethnic tourism on South Pentecost, Vanuatu Chuck de Burlo	255
Part IV: Cross-cultural Issues in Indigenous Tourism
Introduction to Part IV	278
12 Indigenous tourism: the four Hs Valene L. Smith	283
13 Marketing and metaphysical realism: the disidentification of Aboriginal life and traditions through tourism Keith Hollinshead	308
14 Images of destination people in travelogues Graham M.S. Dann	349
15 Cross-cultural research methods: content or context? A Cook Islands example Tracy Berno	376
16 Indigenous Peoples' Cultural Opportunity Spectrum for Tourism (IPCOST) Trevor H.B. Sofield and R. Alastair Birtles	396
Index	435