

SUDAN PEACE PROCESS: CHALLENGES AND FUTURE PROSPECTS

Korwa G. Adar, John G. Nyuot Yoh and Eddy Maloka

Africa Institute of South Africa

Contents

About the Editors	iii
Notes on the Contributors	v
Abbreviations, Acronyms and Concepts	x
Map of the Sudan	xiii

Introduction	1
Korwa G. Adar, John G. Nyuot Yoh and Eddy Maloka

Part One: Conflict Resolution in Sudan: Stakeholder Perspectives

1. The Intergovernmental Authority on Development and the Sudanese Peace Process Tabitha Jeptoo Seii	15
2. Sudan Government and the Peace Process Hassan E. El-Talib	22
3. The Sudan People's Liberation Movement/Army and the Peace Process Barnaba Marial Benjamin	37

Part Two: National, Regional and Global Perspectives

4. Regional and International Dimensions of the Sudanese Peace Process Francis Kornegay	58
5. The Internal and External Contexts of Oil Politics in Sudan: The Role of Actors Shannon Lee Field	68
6. The Politics of Alliances Among Sudanese Stakeholders in Post-War Sudan John G. Nyuot Yoh	78

Part Three: Constitutionalism and Democratisation Trends in Post-War Sudan

7. The Legal Implications of the Sudan Peace Process: Interpretation of the Texts of the Agreements
Biong Kuol Deng 102
8. The Future of Democracy in Post-War Sudan
Abdalla Hamdok 128
9. South-South Sudanese Dialogue
Taban Lo Liyong 141

Part Four: Way Forward

10. Future Perspectives and Conclusion
Abebe Zegeye 154

Part Five: Appendices

- I: Constitution of the Republic of Sudan (July 1998) 162
- II: Protocols, Memoranda of Understanding and Agreements (March 1986-May 2004) 191
- III: Intergovernmental Authority on Drought and Development (IGADD) Recommendation on the Continuation of its Peace Initiative in Sudan (September 1994) 285
- IV: Sudan Government and SPLM/A Positions on the Question of Abyei and the US/IGAD Principles of Agreement on Abyei 286
- Index 291