

MULTILINGUAL MATTERS 96
Series Editor: Derrick Sharp

Language Education for Intercultural Communication

Edited by

Dennis Ager, George Muskens and Sue Wright

MULTILINGUAL MATTERS LTD
Clevedon • Philadelphia • Adelaide

LANGUAGE EDUCATION FOR INTERCULTURAL COMMUNICATION

Contents

Preface

Introduction	1
Dennis Ager, George Muskens and Sue Wright
Second Language Learning in Belgium	15
Ludo Beheydt, Université Catholique de Louvain
Foreign Language Education in Bulgaria: Present-day Situation and Future Tendencies	23
Madeleine Danova, Sofia University, L Krusteva-Bossakova, Bulgarian Academy of Sciences and Ognian Stoitsov, Agricultural Academy, Sofia
Portrait of a Nation as a Language Learner	27
I Vitanova, J Kristeva, Madeleine Danova and M Ruski, Department of Western Languages, Sofia University
Language Learning in England and Wales: Policies and Attitudes in Flux	39
Sue Wright, Aston University
Second National Language Learning in Finland	57
Eero Laine, University of Jyväskylä
Identity, Community and Language Policies in Contemporary France	71
Dennis Ager, Aston University
Multilingualism in the German School	91
Ingrid Gogolin, Gesamthochschule Kassel and University of Hamburg
The Language Situation in Hungary, 1990-1991	109
Szofia Radnai, Janus Pannonius University, Pécs

Languages in the Netherlands: A Study of Supply and Demand	115
Maria Oud-de Glas, Erna van Hest, Fons Peels, Rob Diephuis, Theo van Els, University of Nijmegen
From USSR to CIS and Beyond: Visceral Politics vis-à-vis Ethno-linguistic Realities	131
Frances Knowles, Aston University
Multilingual Education as a Factor of Interethnic Relations: the Case of the Ukraine	159
Oleg Shamshur and Tatiana I Izhevskaya, Ukrainian Academy of Sciences and Institute of Foreign Languages, Kiev
The Language Situation and Language Education in Yugoslavia	169
Ranko Bugarski, University of Belgrade
Language Education for Intercultural Communication in Slovenia	181
Albina Necak Lük, University of Ljubljana
New Trends in Educational Policy in the Republic of Serbia, 1990 to the Present	193
Svenka Savić and Zlata Jukić, Novi Sad
Conclusion	203
Dennis Ager, George Muskens and Sue Wright	