

Jeanette den Toonder / Kim van Dam /
Fjære van der Stok (eds.)

Native America

Indigenous Self-Representation in Canada,
the U.S. and Mexico

PETER LANG
EDITION

Table of Contents

Introduction

Jeanette den Toonder

New Ways for the Future: Hemispheric Encounters.....9

Part I: Literature, Recovery and Space

Daniel Chartier

The Social and Cultural Context of Inuit Literary History31

Hans Bak

Erasure and Recovery: History, Identity and Indigenous Epistemology in LeAnne Howe's Miko Kings (2007)43

Grit Alter

“Ready to Shout of Joyous Things”: Claiming Space for/in Inuit
Children’s Literature.....55

Part II: Conflict, Governance and Citizenship

Andreas Huck

Perceptions, Emotions and Conflict Resolution: The Northern
Gateway Case in British Columbia, Canada.....73

Kim van Dam

Inuit Governance in Nunavut: How to “Inuitize” a Public Government.....91

Merel de Buck

Contesting Citizenship: Educational Practices in an Indigenous Mixtec Community in Mexico 109

Part III: Tradition, Representation and Cultural Expression

Wil Pansters

The Politics of Indigenous Identity and Representation in Twentieth-Century Mexico..... 129

Laurence Simard-Gagnon & Caroline Desbiens

The Social Life of Berries: Gendered Practices of Picking and Sharing in a Contemporary Context..... 145

Martin Berger

The Importance of Tradition? Analyzing the Struggle for Survival of Pelota mixteca, an Indigenous Mexican Game 165

List of Contributors..... 183

Index 187