

BETWEEN HOMELAND AND MOTHERLAND

Africa, U.S. Foreign Policy, and Black
Leadership in America

Alvin B. Tillery Jr.

Contents

Preface	ix
Introduction	1
1. “Not One Was Willing To Go!”: The Paradoxes of “Liberia’s Offerings”	14
2. “His Failure Will Be Theirs”: Why the Black Elite Resisted Garveyism and Embraced Ethiopia	43
3. Protecting “Fertile Fields”: The NAACP and Africa during the Cold War	72
4. “The Time for Freedom Has Come”: Black Leadership in the Age of Decolonization	99
5. “We Are a Power Bloc”: The Congressional Black Caucus and Africa	125
Conclusion	149
Notes	157
Index	195