

The External Relations of the European Community

The International Response to 1992

Edited by

John Redmond

*Director
Graduate School of International Studies
University of Birmingham*

M

St. Martin's Press

Contents

List of Tables and Figures	vii
Preface	viii
List of Abbreviations	ix
List of Contributors	xi
1 Introduction	1
2 Japan's Reaction to the Single Internal Market Ali El-Agraa	12
3 The United States and 1992: Responses to a Changing European Community Michael Smith	31
4 The European Free Trade Association: Revival or Collapse? René Schwok	55
5 The European Community's Relations with the Mediterranean Countries Richard Pomfret	77
6 The European Community, Eastern Europe and the USSR Marc Maresceau	93
7 The Unique Relationship: The European Community and the ACP Carol Cosgrove and Pierre-Henri Laurent	120
8 The European Community and ASEAN John Redmond	138

9	New Zealand, Australia and '1992' Juliet Lodge	161
10	Conclusion	177
	Index	184