

Josef Kreiner,
Hans Dieter Ölschleger (eds.)

Japanese Culture and Society

Models of Interpretation

Monographien aus dem
Deutschen Institut für Japanstudien
der Philipp-Franz-von-Siebold-Stiftung

Band 12
1996

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface

Josef KREINER and Hans Dieter ÖLSCHLEGER 7

The Paradigm of Eternal Recurrence: How the Structure of Academic Debate on the Japanese Economy itself Founded the "Japan Incorporated" Stereotype

Günther DISTELRATH 17

The Japanese Thought of Milieu (fūdo): From Peculiarism to the Quest of the Paradigm

Augustin BERQUE 61

The Tumbling Walls of the Ivory Tower: Cultural Anthropology Meets the Japanese

Hans Dieter ÖLSCHLEGER 81

Community Studies on Japan

Sepp LINHART 109

The Familial (ie) Model of Japanese Society

KUWAYAMA Takami 143

The Multi-Dimensional Stratification Model: A Focus on Variation and the Comparative Perspective

Ross MOUER, Tsuboi Tsuyoshi and Bruce WEARNE 189

The Conflict Model of Japanese Society

Yoshio SUGIMOTO 223

How to Conflict Intelligently: Six Notes Concerning the Processing of Dissent in Japan

Peter PÖRTNER 253

Table of Contents

On the Potential of Gender Studies for the Understanding of Japanese Society
Ilse LENZ 267

*Interdependent Affiliation among Japanese:
The Many Facets of amae*
Frank A. JOHNSON 289

The Contextual Model in Japanese Studies
HAMAGUCHI Eshun 337

Contributors to this Volume 359