

AIR POLLUTION AND INDUSTRIALIZATION IN NIGERIA

Supported by

GOETHE
INSTITUT  LAGOS
The German Cultural Centre in Nigeria

and

The Ford Foundation West Africa Office in Lagos

This publication is distributed not-for-profit. Any proceeds will go to the support of conservation and development efforts in Nigeria through CCDI.

Contents

1.	Introduction	1-1
2.	Welcome address by Renate Albertsen-Marton, Director, Goethe-Institut, Lagos	2-2
3.	Addresses by Guests-of-Honour	3-8
4.	Social, Political and Economic Perspectives of Air Pollution Control in Nigeria by Ako Amadi	9-15
5.	Effects of Pollution on Historical Monuments by John Godwin	16-19
6.	Land-based Sources of Pollution in Nigeria by E. A. Ajao	20-34
7.	Air Pollution Problems in Nigeria by Olugbemiga Kamson	35-38
8.	The Impact of Air Pollution on the Mangrove Ecosystem by Catherine Isebor	39-44
9.	Refocusing Regulatory Regime on Atmospheric Pollution Control in Nigeria by Margaret Okorodudu-Fubara	45-60
10.	Combating Air Pollution in Nigeria by Tunde Atere	61-66
11.	Atmospheric Pollution in Nigeria - A Case Study of Lagos Metropolis by Sylvester Orhiere	67-78
12.	Communiqué	79-80
13.	List of Participants	81-82