

The Electrification
of Russia,
1880–1926

Jonathan Coopersmith

Cornell University Press

ITHACA AND LONDON

Contents

Illustrations	viii
Acknowledgments	ix
Abbreviations and Russian Terms	xi
1. Introduction: The Shaping of a Technology	1
2. Government and Growth in Imperial Russia, 1870–1886	8
3. Electrification, 1886–1914	42
4. The Rise of Electrification, 1914–1917	99
5. Feasting Eyes, Hungry Stomachs, 1917–1920	121
6. GOELRO: The Creation of a Dream, 1920–1921	151
7. The NEP Years, 1921–1926	192
8. Conclusion: Shifting Grounds, Shifting Goals	258
Index	266

Illustrations

Jablochkov arc light	31
Old machine hall of the 1886 Company's Moscow station	52
Peat extraction	132
Opening of the Kashira regional station	148
Soviets and electrification are the basis of a new world	156
Electrification and counterrevolution	176
Kashira regional station	202
Lenin and electrification	206