

Peacekeeping in Africa: Capabilities and Culpabilities

Eric G. BERMAN
and Katie E. SAMS

UNIDIR
United Nations Institute for Disarmament Research
Geneva, Switzerland

ISS
Institute for Security Studies
Pretoria, South Africa

CONTENTS

Page

Preface by the Secretary-General	xiii
Directors' Note	xv
Acknowledgement	xvi
Glossary of Terms	xxi
List of Tables	xxviii
List of Maps	xxix

INTRODUCTION	1
---------------------------	----------

PART I – Setting the Stage	11
---	-----------

Chapter 1 – Prospects for Peace and Security in Africa	13
---	-----------

Enduring Legacies of Colonialism and the Cold War	13
Decline of the State	16
Regional Implications of the Rise of Intra-State Conflict	19

Chapter 2 – Evolving Role of “Peacekeeping”	23
--	-----------

Origins of United Nations Peacekeeping	26
Post-Cold War Peace Operations	30
Initial Expansion	30
Experience of Somalia	32
Subsequent Reduction	36
Increasing Reliance on Burden-Sharing	39

PART II – African Organizations and Ad Hoc Initiatives	43
---	-----------

Chapter 3 – Organization of African Unity	45
--	-----------

A Legacy of Non-Intervention	45
Neutral Force in Chad	47

Background	48
The "OAU" Intervention (1981-1982)	51
End of the Cold War: A New Beginning?	56
Military Observer Team (1990-1991) and Neutral Military Observer Groups in Rwanda (1991-1993)	58
Mechanism for Conflict Prevention, Management and Resolution	61
Central Organ	63
Peace Fund	65
Conflict Management Division	67
Mechanism's Effect on OAU Peacekeeping Policy and Capacity	68
Observer Mission in Burundi (1993-1996)	68
Observer Mission in the Comoros (1997-1999)	70
Achievements	72
Limitations	73
Chapter 4 – Economic Community of West African States	75
Initial Efforts to Develop a Security Framework	78
Economic Integration: a Useful Confidence- Building Measure	78
1978 and 1981 Protocols	80
Creation of ECOMOG: an Improvised Response	83
Civil War in Liberia	83
Standing Mediation Committee	84
ECOMOG in Liberia (1990 to Date)	88
Angolophone-Francophone Divide and Fears of Nigerian Domination	88
ECOMOG's Deployment	91
From "Interposition" Force to Intervention Force	93
Security Council's Initial "Hands Off" Approach and Subsequent Efforts to Make ECOMOG More Credible and Effective	98
Persistent Operational Difficulties	104
Lack of Accountability and Unclear Legal Status	107
"Successful" Elections to End the War: Hold the Applause	108

ECOMOG in Sierra Leone (1997 to Date)	111
Background to the ECOMOG Intervention	111
ECOWAS Approval and Subregional Dynamics	114
ECOMOG's Pyrrhic Victory	118
Salvaging the Situation?	125
ECOMOG in Guinea-Bissau (1998-1999)	128
Background to the ECOMOG Intervention	128
Difficulties in Fielding the ECOMOG Force	131
Coup d'État Threatens Coup d'Éclat	135
Mechanism for Conflict Prevention, Management, and Resolution, Peacekeeping and Security	138
Path Towards the Mechanism	138
Structure of the Proposed Mechanism	141
ECOWAS Peacekeeping Prospects: The Mechanism and Beyond	145

Chapter 5 – Southern African Development Community 151

Organizational and Historical Antecedents	151
Front-line States	151
Southern African Development Co-ordination Conference	154
Dismantling of Apartheid and Other Notable Developments	156
Creation of a "Community"	157
Efforts to Develop a Security Framework	159
Inter-State Defence and Security Committee	160
Proposal for an Association of Southern African States	161
Organ for Politics, Defence and Security	163
SADC Capacity-Building Efforts	166
ISDSC Initiatives	166
Peacekeeping-Related Instruction	167
Regional Peacekeeping Training Exercises	169
Blue Hungwe	169
Blue Crane	170
Tulipe	172
(Proposed) Military Interventions of SADC Member States	172
Lesotho (1994): the Intervention that Never Was	173

Democratic Republic of the Congo (1998 to date)	175
Kabila Secures "SADC" Support	176
SADC Coalition's Operational Successes and Limitations	180
Military Stalemate and Political Fallout	182
Lesotho (1998-1999)	184
A Rash Decision to Intervene Made Outside of SADC	185
The Force Encounters Unexpected Difficulties	187
Salvaging a Bungled Operation?	189
SADC Peacekeeping Prospects: The Organ and Beyond	190
Chapter 6 – Other African Subregional Organizations	193
Arab Maghreb Union	193
East African Co-operation	198
Economic Community of Central African States	201
Intergovernmental Authority on Development	207
The Treaty of Non-Aggression, Assistance and Mutual Defence	210
Chapter 7 – African Ad Hoc Initiatives	217
Zaire (1977-1979)	217
Chad (1979)	220
Mozambique (1986-1992)	221
Central African Republic (1997-1998)	222
Political and Legal Framework	223
Composition and Command	224
Performance in the Field	225
Dependence on External Support	226
Transition to a United Nations Peacekeeping Operation	227
Proposed Operation in Congo (Brazzaville) (1997)	228

PART III – Understanding African Peacekeeping Abilities and Limitations	233
Chapter 8 – From Korea to Kosovo: 50 Years of Experience	235
United Nations Peacekeeping Operations	235
Non-African-Led Multinational Forces	244
Chapter 9 – Means, Motives, and Militaries	251
Enabling Characteristics of United Nations Peacekeeping Operations and Western-led Missions	251
Capabilities and Constraints	256
PART IV – Efforts to Develop African Capacities	265
Chapter 10 – United States	267
Africa: Not a US “Vital National Interest”	267
Training and Long-Term Capacity-Building Programmes	270
African Crisis Response Initiative	270
Plans for an African Crisis Response Force	270
From Standing Force to Capacity Enhancement	272
Changes to Phase 1 and Phase 2	274
The Eight Recipients	276
Possible Further Changes	278
Other Programmes that Develop Peacekeeping Capacities ..	279
Joint/Combined Exchange Training	279
Regional Command Exercises	280
International Military Education and Training	281
Expanded International Military Education and Training	282
Enhanced International Peacekeeping Capabilities ...	283
African Center for Strategic Studies	283
Support for Other Countries’ Peacekeeping Training Initiatives	284
Operational Assistance in the Field	285
Assessment	286

Chapter 11 – France	291
France’s “Africa Policy” in Transition	291
Renforcement des capacités africaines de maintien de la paix	297
Instruction	299
Zambakro Peacekeeping Training School	299
Other Initiatives Devoted to Education	301
Subregional Training Exercises	303
Exercise Guidimakha and “Lessons Learned”	304
Plans for Gabon 2000	306
Support for Other Multinational Exercises	307
Equipping	308
Operational Assistance in the Field	310
Assessment	312
 Chapter 12 – United Kingdom	 317
From Decolonization to Developing African Peacekeeping Capabilities	317
African Peacekeeping Training Support Programme	319
British Military Advisory and Training Teams	319
Other Elements of the Programme	323
Security Sector Reform Programme	325
Operational Assistance in the Field	326
Assessment	328
 Chapter 13 – Other Bilateral Initiatives	 333
Belgium	333
Canada	336
Denmark	339
Germany	344
Italy	347
Japan	348
Netherlands	350
Norway	352
Sweden	354
Other Non-African Countries	355
Assessment	357

Chapter 14 – Multilateral Initiatives	359
Organizations Without African Members	360
European Union	360
Western European Union	363
Organizations With African Members	365
The Commonwealth	365
Community of Portuguese-Speaking Countries	368
International Organization of the Francophonie	370
Informal Arrangements	372
France and the United Kingdom	372
Franco-African Summits	373
Nordic Countries	374
Assessment	375
CONCLUSION	377
General Observations	379
X Peacekeeping in Africa: the Growing Demand and Dwindling United Nations Supply	379
African Efforts to Promote Peace and Security: Numerous but Limited	380
African Peacekeeping Experience and Military Capabilities Explain Predicament	383
Western Programmes to Develop African Capacities: A Partial Answer	384
Short- and Medium-Term Approaches Needed	387
Specific Recommendations	388
Concerning Actions to be Taken by African States and Organizations	388
Concerning Actions to be Taken by Non-African Countries and Organizations	392
X Concerning Actions to be Taken by the United Nations . . .	396
Peacekeeping in Africa: Capabilities and Culpabilities	398

Annexes	399
A. African Participation in OAU Operations	401
B. African Participation in ECOWAS Operations	402
C. African Participation in SADC Operations	403
D. African Participation in Other African-led Operations	404
E. African Participation in UN Peacekeeping Operations	405
F. African Participation in Non-African-led Multinational Forces	411
G. African Capabilities for Peace Operations: An Assessment in Support of the African Crisis Response Initiative (ACRI) by DFI International	413
H. Non-African Participation in UN Peacekeeping Operations in Africa	459
 Selected Bibliography	 463
Books	465
Reports	468
Articles and Chapters	473
Dissertations and Theses	479
Conference Papers and Speeches	479
United Nations Documents	480
 Interviews and Written Correspondence	 521