

Towards Gender Equality

South African Schools during the HIV and AIDS Epidemic

Robert Morrell

Debbie Epstein

Elaine Unterhalter

Deevia Bhana

Relebohile Moletsane

UNIVERSITY OF KWAZULU-NATAL PRESS

Contents

List of Abbreviations	vii
Acknowledgements	ix
CHAPTER 1 Introductory Accounts	1
CHAPTER 2 Elusive Equality: Theoretical Engagements	9
CHAPTER 3 Addressing Gender Equality in South Africa: 1994–2008	27
CHAPTER 4 Setting the Scene: Research Approaches and Sites	53
CHAPTER 5 The Challenge of Instituting Gender Equality in, Secondary Schools	71
CHAPTER 6 Struggling with Gender and Sexuality in Primary Schools: Teaching about HIV and AIDS	93
CHAPTER 7 ‘AmaBornFree’: Identities, Sexuality and the Negotiation of Gender Equality in Secondary Schools	111
CHAPTER 8 Sexuality, Race and Class: The Making of Identities through Young Children’s Accounts of HIV and AIDS	131
CHAPTER 9 Teacher Masculinities and Gendered Pedagogy	147
CHAPTER 10 Women Teachers, Women’s Work and the Challenge of Care	169
CHAPTER 11 Progress towards Equality: A Conclusion	183

References	195
About the Authors	213
Index	217