

Eckart Hildebrandt
Børge Lorentzen
Eberhard Schmidt (eds.)

Towards a Sustainable Worklife

Building Social Capacity – European Approaches

edition sigma

© 2004 Edition Sigma
www.edition-sigma.de

Contents

Introductory Remarks	7
PART I: TRADE UNION INVOLVEMENT IN ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION
Industrial Relations and the Environment: IRENE Research Findings from a New Policy Field	15
Denis Gregory, Eckart Hildebrandt, Kees Le Blansch and Børge Lorentzen
Environment and Work: The Relation between Environment, Economy and Employment Seen from a Trade Union Perspective	39
Sven Nyberg
Trade Unions as Agents of Environmental Awareness: Outcomes from the RISE Project	55
Gérard Valenduc
Worklife and the Environment: A Case Study on Unionists' Opinions and Attitudes at Company Level	67
Ernest Garcia, Francesc La Roca and Manuel Rodríguez
Enviro-innovative Processes Initialised by Unions and Other Social Actors – with a Focus on TCO Eco-Labels	87
Ernst Hollander
PART II: WORKERS PARTICIPATION IN ENVIRONMENTAL MANAGEMENT SYSTEMS
Learning Processes from Encouraging Worker Participation in Environmental Management	107
Børge Lorentzen
What's EMAS' Worth for Workers? Results from an Empirical Research Study in 20 Certified Companies	129
Kees Le Blansch, Edgar van Leest and Jup van 't Veld

European Works Councils and Environmental Management – a New Challenge	147
Eberhard Schmidt
PART III: SUSTAINABLE WORKLIFE AND CHANGING LIFESTYLES
The Agenda 21 and the Future of Work	161
Francesco Garibaldo and Elena Battaglini
Flexible Work and a Sustainable Lifestyle	189
Eckart Hildebrandt
The Slow Greening of Lifestyles in French Households – Findings from the National Statistic Survey of January 1998	217
Michelle Dobré
Eco-efficient Services for Private Households: Looking at the Consumer's Side	231
Beate Littig
Environmental Participation and Perceptions of Justice	247
Paula Marisa Pott
Contributing Authors	259