

Universitätsbibliothek
Frankfurt a.M.

Native American Survivance, Memory, and Futurity

The Gerald Vizenor Continuum

Edited by Birgit Däwes and Alexandra Hauke

 Routledge
Taylor & Francis Group
NEW YORK AND LONDON

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
Introduction	1
BIRGIT DÄWES AND ALEXANDRA HAUKE
1 Expeditions in France: Native American Indians in the First World War	8
GERALD VIZENOR
SECTION 1
“Truth Games”: Transnationalism, Transmotion, and Trickster Poetics	17
2 Gerald Vizenor: Transnational Trickster of Theory	19
ALEXANDRA GANSER
3 Universal Peculiarities in Gerald Vizenor’s The Heirs of Columbus and Shrouds of White Earth	34
KATHRYN W. SHANLEY
4 Jiibayag Ashegiiwe: Revenants, Gerald Vizenor, Odazhe-Giiwenigon	47
CHRIS LALONDE
5 The Late Mr. Vizenor: Recent Storying	63
A. ROBERT LEE

SECTION 2

“Chance Connections”: Memory, Land, and Language 73

6 Vizenor and the Power of Transitive Memories 75

KIMBERLY M. BLAESER

7 The Ground of Memory: Vizenor, Land, Language 90

DAVID L. MOORE

8 Gerald Vizenor’s Shimmering Birds in Dialog: (De-)Framing, Memory, and the Totemic in Favor of Crows and
*Blue Ravens 102

CATHY COVELL WAEGNER

SECTION 3

“The Many Traces of Ironic Traditions”: History and Futurity 117

9 From Domestic Dependency to Native Cultural Sovereignty:
A Legal Reading of Gerald Vizenor’s *Chair of Tears 119

SABINE N. MEYER

10 “Nothing More Than the Chance of Remembrance”:
Gerald Vizenor and the Motion of Natural Reason
in the Presence of War 135

BILLY J. STRATTON

11 Ecstatic Vision, Blue Ravens, Wild Dreams: The Urgency of the Future in Gerald Vizenor’s Art 145

KRISTINA BAUDEMANN

Contributors 157

Index 163