

THE PROOF FROM PROPHECY

A Study in Justin Martyr's Proof-Text Tradition: Text-Type, Provenance, Theological Profile

BY

OSKAR SKARSAUNE

LEIDEN — E. J. BRILL — 1987

CONTENTS

Preface .....	IX
Abbreviations .....	XII
A Note on references and quotations in the text .....	XV
Introduction .....	1
Prelude: Justin's self-understanding as an exegete .....	11
Part One:
Justin's Old Testament quotations and their sources
Chapter One: A brief survey of research .....	17
Chapter Two: A selective analysis of Justin's quotation material .....	25
1. Textual variants on which Justin himself comments .....	25
Conclusions and suggestions .....	43
2. Other texts transmitted in two versions .....	47
Conclusions .....	90
3. Justin and earlier Christian writers .....	92
Detailed synoptic studies .....	114
General conclusions .....	130
Part Two:
Testimony clusters and the disposition of 1. Apol. 31 ff and Dial. 11—141
Chapter One: A brief sketch of previous research .....	135
Chapter Two: 1. Apol. 31 ff .....	139
1. The -creed- sequence .....	140
2. The great insertion. 1. Apol. 36—49 .....	157
3. Remaining material: 1. Apol. 54—68 .....	162
Chapter Three: The Dialogue .....	165
Introductory remarks: Dispositional elements and techniques in the Dialogue .....	165
1. The new law and the new covenant: Dial. 11—47 .....	166
2. The new law and the new people: Dial. 108—141 .....	182
3. The proof that Jesus is the Messiah: Dial. 48—107 .....	191
Preliminary conclusions .....	226
Chapter Four: The nature and identity of the reconstructed sources .....	228
1. The -kerygma source- .....	228
2. The -recapitulation- source .....	234

Part Three:
The setting, profile, and provenance of Justin's exegetical material
Introductory remarks .....	245
1. On purpose and method; and a brief survey of previous research .....	245
2. Two important sources for comparison: The Anabathmoi Iakobou and The Testaments of the Twelve Patriarchs . ....	252
Chapter One: The setting of Justin's exegesis .....	256
Chapter Two: The main exegetical traditions behind the Apology and Dial. 11—47/108—141: The "kerygma source" .....	260
1. The Christological testimonies .....	260
A. A review of Jewish parallels .....	262
Conclusions .....	269
B. Theological concerns and ideas .....	269
Conclusions .....	287
2. The slaying of the Just One and the devastation of Judaea .....	288
3. The law of Moses .....	295
Excursus I: A tripartite division of the law in Justin? .....	323
Conclusions .....	326
4. The new people in the new Jerusalem .....	326
5. The new law going out from Zion .....	353
Excursus II: Justin's polemic against idolatry .....	368
General conclusions and some suggestions .....	371
6. Dial. 86: Wood and water .....	374
Chapter Three: The exegetical traditions behind Dial. 48—107 .....	380
1. The recapitulation idea (I): Pre-existence and virgin birth .....	380
2. The recapitulation idea (II): The baptism of Jesus .....	391
3. The recapitulation idea (III): Types on the passion .....	393
4. The redeemer of Jerusalem .....	401
Excursus III: Was Cerinth a millennialist? .....	407
5. The theophanies and the second God .....	409
Conclusions and suggestions for further research .....	425
Appendix I: Justin's quotation material in Irenaeus and Tertullian .....	435
Appendix II: Analytic tables of Justin's OT quotations .....	454
Bibliography .....	473
Index of references .....	489
Index of modern authors .....	502