

Strategies for Productivity

INTERNATIONAL PERSPECTIVES

---

Contents

---

Contributors	ix
Foreword by C. Jackson Grayson, Jr.	xi
Preface by Kohei Goshi	xiii
Introduction by Paul Tippett	xv

PART 1

---

Labor Relations and Corporate Goals

The Challenge of Planning Corporate Strategy	3
THORNTON F. BRADSHAW

Labor Organization, Markets, and Economic Vitalization	11
--	----

JOHN T. DUNLOP

Markets and Their Institutions	11
The Debate on the Consequences of Labor Organizations	13
Vitalization in U.S. Market Competition	18

Information Disclosure in the Corporation	21
---	----

B. C. ROBERTS

The State Provision of General Information	21
The Disclosure of Information by Employers	22
Legal Requirements on the Disclosure of Information	24
Disclosure of Information Relating to Reductions in Employment	26

vi : Contents

The Vredeling Directive	27
Conclusions	29
A Rationale for Employment Security	31
GLENN E. WATTS
Employment Security Issues	31
Union Involvement	32
Job Training	36
Communication and Employee-Management Relations	38
Industrial Policy	41
Employee-Management Relations in a Highly Unionized Environment	43
B. SVEDBERG
The Economic Environment in Sweden	43
The Growth of Regulation	44
Technological Change and the Return to Cooperation	45
Employees, Unions, and the Management Function at Ericsson	47
Conclusion	49
Labor-Management Relations in a New Technological Environment	51
SOICHIRO ASANO
Labor Union in Response to Technological Innovation	51
Response to Microelectronics (ME): The Third Industrial Revolution	52
PART 2
<hr/>
Productivity Measurement and Improvement
Productivity Scheme: A Case Study in Blue Circle Industries PLC	59
R. B. FREEMAN
Productivity Objectives: Blue Circle Industries PLC	61
The Productivity Group	63
Pitfalls and Failings of U.K. Management	66
Conclusions	67

White-Collar Productivity Measurement	69
KENNETH A. CHARON
Labor Force Composition	69
The Productivity Challenge	70
The Common Staffing System	72
Uses of CSS in IBM	80

PART 3

---

Productivity and the Japanese Corporation

Corporate Management and Labor Relations in Japan	85
KOTARO TSUJIMURA
Management Systems and Labor-Management Relations	85
“Rational” Choices in a Given Environment	88
Productivity and the Economic Environment	92
The Logic of Japanese Enterprise	95
GENE GREGORY
The Setting of Enterprise	97
The Purpose of Enterprise	106
People and Enterprise	114
Enterprise and Society	119
The Cooperative Mode of Management	125
The Quality Control Circle: The Komatsu Experience	129
RYOICHI KAWAI
History of TQC at Komatsu	129
Consistent Policies in TQC	130
QC Circle Activities	132
Organization of QC Circle Activities	132
Example of QC Circle Activities	132
Methodology of QC Circle Activities	133
Roles within QC Circle Activities	134
Presentation of Results	134
Fair Evaluation	135
Roles Played by Management	135
The Offshore University	136

viii : Contents

QC Circles Upgrade of Personnel	136
Conclusion	136
Quality-Sustaining Competitiveness in the Japanese Auto Industry	139
TAKASHI ISHIHARA
Achieving Competitiveness	140
Production and Quality Control	141
Overseas Procurements	142
The "Active" Firm: A Case Study of Nippon Kokan	145
MINORU KANAO
Definition of an "Active" Organization	145
Case Examples of Nippon Kokan	146
The Transformation from Blue Collar to White Collar	147
Labor Unions and the Wage System	148
Efficient Communication	149
Index	150