

A QUESTION OF PRIORITIES

Democratic Reforms and Economic Recovery in Postwar Germany

Frankfurt, Munich, and Stuttgart under U.S. Occupation 1945–1949

Volume 2: Monographs in German History

Rebecca L. Boehling

Berghahn Books
Providence • Oxford

CONTENTS

List of Abbreviations	vi
Preface	viii
Introduction	1
Chapter I: American Preparations for Postwar German Self-Government	15
Chapter II: Structure, Jurisdiction, and Policies of the Office of Military Government – U.S. Zone (OMGUS)	41
Chapter III: From Resistance and Liberation to Conquest and Occupation	72
Chapter IV: The Stunde Null: American Occupiers, German Appointees, and Pre-democratic Municipal Administration	116
Chapter V: German Grassroots Democracy and U.S. Military Government: Early Manifestations of Local Self-Government	156
Chapter VI: U.S. Military Government in Retreat: The Return of German Self-Government and the Results of Democratization Initiatives	210
Chapter VII: Conclusion: The Legacy of the U.S. Occupation	268
Bibliography	280
Index	294