

GEOGRAPHIA RELIGIONUM

Interdisziplinäre Schriftenreihe zur Religionsgeographie

Band 3

Reinhard Henkel

Christian Missions in Africa

A social geographical study of the impact of their activities in Zambia

Dietrich Reimer Verlag
Berlin

Contents

	page
Preface	5
List of Figures	10
List of Tables	13
I. Introduction	15
II. A History of the Christian Missions in Zambia, as Seen in the Diffusion of Mission Stations	23
1. The Context: The Expansion of Christianity in Africa	23
2. The Mission Station: Centre for Missionary Activity	24
3. Early Mission Settlement up to 1900	28
4. The Expansion of Mission Work Between 1900 and 1920	32
5. The Inter-War Years: Advance of the Catholic Church	36
6. The Move into the Urban Areas after World War II	39
III. The Churches in Zambia Today and their Spatial Distribution	46
1. Estimations of the Extent of Christianisation and the Distribution of the Different Denominations	46
2. The Catholic Church	52
3. The More Ecumenically-Orientated Protestant Churches and the Anglican Church	57
a. The United Church of Zambia (UCZ)	57
b. The Reformed Church in Zambia (RCZ)	60
c. The African Methodist Episcopal Church (AMEC)	62
d. The Anglican Church	64
e. The Salvation Army	66
f. The Lutheran Church of Central Africa	68

	page
4. The More Evangelically-Orientated Protestant Churches	69
a. The Seventh-Day Adventist Church (SDA)	69
b. "Christian Missions in Many Lands" (CMML) — The Christian Brethren	71
c. The Evangelical Church in Zambia (ECZ)	73
d. The Baptist Churches	74
e. Other Small Mission Churches	78
5. Other Christian Communities	83
a. Jehovah's Witnesses	83
b. The New Apostolic Church	86
c. The Independent Churches	86
6. A Classification of the Churches Using Social-Geographical Criteria and the Problem of the "Tribal Churches"	89
IV. The Influence of the Missions on Settlement Structure	96
1. Locational Factors Considered in the Founding of Mission Stations	96
2. The Principle of Spheres of Influence and the Relationship between Missionary Societies	103
3. The Rural Focus of Missions, their Aversion to the Towns and Attitudes towards Labour Migration	112
4. The Direct Effects of Christian Missionary Activity on Settlement Structure and the Importance of Mission Stations as Service Centres	116
V. The Significance of the Missions in the Development of the Educational System	125
1. The Genesis of the System of Formal Education up to 1924	125
2. The Education System in the Colonial Period, 1924 – 1964	129
3. Structural Changes in the Education System after Independence in 1964	135
4. The Missions' Contribution to Elite Formation	138
VI. The Contribution of the Missions to Medical Care	143
1. The Spatial Distribution of Medical Care	143

	page
2. Health Care in the Colonial Era	145
3. Changes in the Health System after Independence in 1964	150
VII. The Impact of Missionary Activity on the Economy	153
1. The "Economic Mind", the "Spirit of Capitalism", Economic Success and Religion	153
2. Early Economic Activities of the Missions in Zambia	158
3. First Case Study: The Emergence of a Market-Orientated Agriculture in the Southern Province	161
4. Second Case Study: The Area of Chieftainess Nyanje (Eastern Province)	166
5. Third Case Study (and Excursus): Livingstonia Mission in Northern Malawi	181
6. Fourth Case Study: Zambia's North-Western Province — the Area of Work of the Brethren and of the South Africa General Mission	182
7. Fifth Case Study: Jehovah's Witnesses in Serenje District	185
8. Summary	188
VIII. The Role of the Churches and Christian Organisations in the Development Field	192
1. Features of Church Development Aid	192
2. Church Development Projects in Zambia	197
IX. Summary	202
X. Zusammenfassung	206
Bibliography	211
Appendix: Abbreviations	234
Map 1: Survey map of Zambia	235
Map 2: Languages and ethnic groups	236