

Comparative Perspectives on South Africa

Edited by

Ran Greenstein

Principal Researcher

Community Agency for Social Enquiry (CASE)

Johannesburg

Contents

Notes on the Contributors	vii
Preface	ix
1 Identity, Race, History: South Africa and the Pan-African Context Ran Greenstein	1
2 Marxists or Fashionable Ladies? Gender, Identity and Working-Class History Iris Berger	33
3 The Role of Culture in Democracy Movements in the Black Expressive Tradition: Artist Performance Practice in Brazil, South Africa and the United States Robin M. Chandler	55
4 Models and Metaphors: Industrial Education in the United States and South Africa James Campbell	90
5 On the Mines (1880–1950): Work, Leisure and Resistance in the Folklore of Mines and Miners of South Africa and Appalachian America Richard Ralston	135
6 Black Power in the United States and Black Consciousness in South Africa: Connections and Comparisons George M. Fredrickson	185
7 End Games of Segregation and Apartheid: South Africa and the American South John W. Cell	217

8	Oppositional Identities in Brazil and South Africa: Unions and the Transition to Democracy Gay W. Seidman	243
9	Variations on Settler Ethnicity: The Dissolution of the Afrikaner Nationalist and Ulster Unionist Coalitions Alexander M. Johnston	260
10	Conclusion: South Africa in African History John Lonsdale	287
	Index	306