

P. de Gijssel, M. Janssen, H.-J. Wenzel,
M. Woltering (eds.)

Understanding European Cross-Border Labour Markets

Issues in Economic Cross-Border Relations

Metropolis-Verlag
Marburg 1999

Contents

I. Concepts and Issues in European Cross-Border Labour Economics

P. de Gijssel, M. Janssen, H.-J. Wenzel, M. Woltering Concepts and Issues in European Cross-Border Labour Economics: An Introduction	7
---	---

II. Mobility and Unemployment

Alexandros Tassinopoulos Migration of Labour in the European Union	23
Michael Woltering Migration and Labour Market Integration: The Case of Foreign Workers in Germany and the Netherlands	45

III. Developing Cross-Border Labour Markets

Peter A. Fischer and Thomas Straubhaar The Impact of Mobility on Regional Development: Some Empirical Evidence for European Countries	71
Henk van Houtum What is the Influence of Borders on Economic Internationalisation?	107

Manfred Janssen

Obstacles and Willingness for Cross-Border Mobility:
The Dutch-German Border Region 143

B. Martin R. van der Velde

Searching for Jobs in a Border-Area: The Influence of Borders
in a Dutch Euregion 165

Manfred Janssen

New Enterprises in Germany and the Netherlands: Mobility and Locational Choices of Highly Qualified Starters 183

IV. Active Cross-Border Labour Market Policy

Lutwin Marchand

The Value of the Cross-Border Job Market Relations for European Integration and Coherence, and Possibilities for Co-ordination in Border Regions 207

Peter de Gijsel, Manfred Janssen, Hans-Joachim Wenzel,

Michael Woltering

Active Labour Market Policy: Lessons from the ECLA-Project 217

Authors 233