

MICHAEL BARZELAY

---

The Politicized
Market Economy

Alcohol in Brazil's Energy Strategy

University of California Press

Berkeley / Los Angeles / London

Contents

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| FOREWORD, by Albert Fishlow  | ix  |
| ACKNOWLEDGMENTS   | xi  |
| 1. Introduction   | 1   |
| Part I. Efficiency, Incentives, and a Politico-Economic Model ofResource Allocation |     |
| 2. The Economic Efficiency of Alcohol Production:Analysis and Implications                  | 19  |
| 3. Market Forces in the Steered Economy   | 45  |
| 4. The Politicized Market Economy   | 77  |
| Part II. The National Alcohol Program in Brazil: Historyand Analysis                |     |
| 5. From Sugar Industry Bailout to Energy Strategy   | 129 |
| 6. Phase One (1976-78): Alcohol Without Proálcool  | 154 |
| 7. Phase Two (1979): The New Proálcool ?   | 174 |
| 8. The Alcohol Boom (1980-81): An UnstableEquilibrium                                       | 198 |
| 9. Denouement and Equilibration   | 228 |
| 10. Conclusion  | 246 |
| Appendixes  | 263 |
| Bibliography  | 267 |
| Index   | 277 |