

Liberalization and Privatization of Transport in Third World and Eastern European Countries

Seminar Proceedings

An International Seminar for High Government Representatives and General Managers of Public Transport Corporations of Developing Countries

Munich, June 18th – 21st, 1990

Deutsche Gesellschaft für
Technische Zusammenarbeit (GTZ) GmbH

Technical Cooperation –
Federal Republic of Germany

Eschborn 1991

TABLE OF CONTENTS

	Page
Preface	9
Introduction	11
Executive summary of main results	13
Transcript of Opening Addresses	15
Proceedings Panel 1: The need for liberalization of transport within the national economy: an overview	19
1.1 Transport policy in developing countries: the evolving role of the public sector in transport enterprises, by J.S. Gutman	21
1.2 Transportation in Asian countries: The UN transportation decade, by D. L. Turner	37
1.3 Transport policies in SEATAC member countries, by Mohamed Zakri bin Abdul Rashid	47
1.4 Results of the study "Privatisation of transport in developing countries" by G. Zietlow	63
1.5 The need for transport policy revision in Eastern Europe by S. Bergstrom	77
1.6 Summary Panel 1	89

Proceedings of Panel 2: The role of the Government in the liberalization process 91

- 2.1. Management assistance in policy reforms, the case of the Road Maintenance Initiatives in SSATP, by Mr. Terje Wolden 93
- 2.2. The role of the Government in the privatisation process, by Dr. G. Metschies 105
- 2.3. The limits of the Government in the liberalization process, by Mr. Hasan bin Abdul Samad 121
- 2.4. The role of the Turkish Government in the privatisation process of transport corporations By Mr. A.K. Gulseren 137
- 2.5. The role of the Government and its ministries within the liberalization of the transport sector in Zanzibar, by Mr. E.A. Mwakymbe 145
- 2.6. Summary Panel 2 151

Proceedings of Panel 3: Consequences of the Liberalization process within the parastatal sector 153

- 3.1. The impact of the changing economic environment on a nation-wide public passenger transportation service. The example of the Gambia public transportation corporation (GPTC), by I.B. Ceesay 155
- 3.2. Some features of the road transport industry in Malawi by S.H.D. Matsimbe 161
- 3.3. Organisation of transport in Zaire, consequences of liberalising the transport sector, by K. Masoka 171

3.4.	Privatisation efforts in the transportation sector, by V. Varanusupakul	179
3.5.	Summary Panel 3	191
Proceedings of Panel 4: Role and task of the private transport sector		193
4.1.	The role of the Government and its ministries in the liberalization process, by B. Camara	195
4.2.	The role of private firms in port management in Malaysia by Ministry of Transport, Malaysia	205
4.3.	The role of firms in railway operations, by V. Pronsiripongse	213
4.4.	The role of private enterprises in the road sector in Cameroon, by E.A. Batoko	223
4.5.	Privatisation within the transport sector in Ruanda/ Central Africa, by A. Ntilivamunda	235
4.6.	Summary of Panel 4	243
Proceedings of Panel 5: Alternative to privatisation and social consequences of the liberalization process		245
5.1.	Liberalization of transport trade in Swaziland by Mr. Malinga	247
5.2.	Commercialisation of a parastatal transport company as an alternative to privatisation, by C.B. Chimanja	255
5.3.	Social consequences of the liberalization process in the transport sector: The Tanzanian experience, by A.K. Masele	267

