

Women, Work & Domestic Virtue in Uganda

1900–2003

GRACE BANTEBYA KYOMUHENDO

Department of Women & Gender Studies
Makerere University

&

MARJORIE KENISTON MCINTOSH

Department of History
University of Colorado at Boulder

James Currey
OXFORD

Ohio University Press
ATHENS

Fountain Publishers
KAMPALA

Contents

List of Maps, Figures & Illustrations	vii
Acknowledgements	viii
Abbreviations & Glossary	x

Part I

Introduction	1
1
Introduction	2
Definition, Conceptual Framework & Analytical Diagram – Methodology & Sources – Summary of our Findings & Argument
2
Uganda: Its Districts & People	20
Uganda & the Seven Districts – The ‘Torchbearers’ – The Women in our District Sample – Introductory Profiles

Part II

The Generations of Gradual Change 1900–71	43
3
The Early Colonial World 1900–39	44
The Economic, Political & Demographic Setting – Christianity & Female Education – Women’s Work
4
Women’s Issues & the Domestic Virtue Model	65
Disputed Issues Concerning Women – Attempts to Control Female Behavior – The Domestic Virtue Model & its Service Career Variation
5
The Late Colonial Period 1940–62	87
A Gradually Changing Context – Women’s Education, Organizations & Political Involvement – Women’s Work – Public Discussion of Women’s Issues

Contents

6

The Early Independence Years 1962–71	116
Economics, Migration, Education & Public Activity
Women's Work – Public Attitudes & the Domestic Virtue Model

Part III

Radical Transformations for Uganda & its Women 1971–2003	145
---	-----

7

The Amin/Obote II Period 1971–86	146
Physical Violence & Economic Collapse – Geographic Mobility & Education for Women – Repression of Women by the Government & the Press – Women's Work & Domestic Virtue

8

Broader Developments for Women during the NRM Period 1986–2003	184
Political & Economic Stability Restored – The NRM's Pro-Women Policies – Women's Organizations – Reproductive Health & HIV/AIDS

9

Work & Gender Issues in the NRM Years	218
Women's Work – Portrayals of Women & their Issues – Gender Tension – Domestic Virtue & Successful Entrepreneurs

10

Women & Work in 2003 Assessment & Recommendations	253
Material Factors – Gender-based Constraints – Domestic Virtue & the Future

Appendices

A. Newspapers Analyzed, by Year	268
B. People Interviewed	269
C. Quantitative Information about the District Sample	271
D. Report on Women Leaders' Meeting, 20 March 2003	278

Bibliography

280

Index

300