
The Political and Socioeconomic Transformation of Turkey

Edited by Atila Eralp, Muharrem Tünay,
and Birol Yeşilada

PRAEGER

Westport, Connecticut
London

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
Introduction
Atila Eralp, Muharrem Tünay, and Birol A. Yeşilada	1
1. The Turkish New Right's Attempt at Hegemony Muharrem Tünay	11
2. Ideology, Social Bases, and Organizational Structure of the Post-1980 Political Parties Ayşe Ayata	31
3. The Rise of Islamic Fundamentalism and Its Institutional Framework Sencer Ayata	51
4. The Development of Turkish Manufacturing Industry during 1976-1987: An Overview Oktar Türel	69
5. Turkey's Labor Market Policies in the 1980s against the Background of Its Stabilization Program Fikret Şenses	97
6. The World Bank and the Transformation of Turkish Agriculture Zülküf Aydın	111

7.	Trade Strategy in the 1980s Canan Balkur	135
8.	Turkish Foreign Policy toward the Middle East Biröl A. Yeşilada	169
9.	Turkey and the European Community: Prospects for a New Relationship Atila Eralp	193
10.	Turkey and the Western Alliance in the 1980s Duygu Bazođlu Sezer	215
Epilogue	... Atila Eralp, Muharrem Tünay, and Biröl A. Yeşilada	231
Index		237
About the Editors and Contributors		243