

Yugoslavia in the 1980s

edited by Pedro Ramet

Westview Press / Boulder and London

Contents

List of Tables	ix
Acknowledgments	xi
About the Contributors	xiii
Map of Yugoslavia	xvii

INTRODUCTION

1 Apocalypse Culture and Social Change in Yugoslavia, Pedro Ramet	3
--	---

PART 1 INSTITUTIONAL ARENAS

2 Party Monopoly and Political Change: The League of Communists Since Tito's Death, Wolfgang Höpken	29
3 Political-Military Relations in Post-Tito Yugoslavia, Robin Alison Remington	56
4 Self-Management and Socialization, Sharon Zukin	76
5 The Yugoslav Press in Flux, Pedro Ramet	100

PART 2 DOMESTIC ISSUE AREAS

6 Nationalities Policy and the "National Question," Dennison Rusinow	131
7 The Dynamics of Yugoslav Religious Policy: Some Insights from Organization Theory, Pedro Ramet	166
8 Can Titoism Survive Tito? Economic Problems and Policy Choices Confronting Tito's Successors, Chris Martin and Laura D'Andrea Tyson	184

9 The New Feminism in Yugoslavia, Barbara Jancar . . . 201

10 Environmental Protection: "The Tragedy of the Republics," Barbara Jancar 224

PART 3 FOREIGN POLICY

11 Yugoslav Nonalignment in the 1980s, Zachary T. Irwin 249

12 Yugoslavia and the USSR in the Post-Tito Era, Othmar Nikola Haberl 276

PART 4 SYSTEMIC VIEWS

13 Political Decay in One-Party Systems in Eastern Europe: Yugoslav Patterns, George Schöpflin . . . 307

14 Contradiction and Reform in Yugoslav Communism: A Conclusion, Pedro Ramet 325

Index 333