

Behind the Disappearances

---

Argentina's Dirty War Against Human Rights and the United Nations

Iain Guest

University of Pennsylvania Press
Philadelphia

Contents

---

---

Acknowledgments	xii
Introduction	xiii
Prologue: Buenos Aires, September 11 1985. Generals in the Dock	I

I: After the Coup

1. Mónica Disappears	9
2. The War Begins	23
3. Torture at the ESMA	34
4. The Relatives Resist	49
5. The Truth Comes Out	63
6. Amnesty's Fraught Visit	76

II: Inside the United Nations

7. A Dangerous Place	89
8. The Godfather	103
9. The Junta Counterattacks	111
10. Martínez Against the U.N. Middleman	122
11. The Junta's Bluff	135

III: The Carter Years

12. Derian into the Lion's Den	151
13. The Allis Chalmers Controversy	164
14. Martínez Prepares	180
15. Shestack Breaks the U.N. Jinx	190
16. The Chairman Disappears	202
17. The Dialogue Starts, the Disease Spreads	216
18. The Pressure Pays Off	229

IV: The Reagan Years

19. The Neoconservative Revolution	247
20. The Carrier Changes Course	261
21. Lefever's Calvary	277
22. Abrams Recoups	291
23. The Knives Sharpen	303
24. The Dictators Triumph	320

V: Uneasy Transition

25. The Angel's Wings are Clipped	335
26. The Unplugging	345
27. Betrayal in Geneva	357
28. The Politicized United Nations	366
29. Alfonsín's Compromise	381
30. The Denuncia	392
Aftermath: Buenos Aires, September 1985. Relatives in Limbo	403

Appendices

1. The 1982 Dismissal of Theo van Boven	411
2. Liberty Jail, Uruguay, December 1979	419
3. The September 1980 Cable from the U.S. Embassy in Buenos Aires on "The Tactic of the Disappearances"	429
4. Extracts from the Speech that Michael Novak Planned to Deliver to the U.N. Human Rights Commission, February 1981	436
5. 1235 and 1503: Two Resolutions that Changed the United Nations	439
6. Non-Governmental Organizations and the United Nations Human Rights Machinery—An Uneasy Partnership	442
7. The Human Rights Machinery of the Organization of American States	445
Notes	449
Bibliography	561
Index	579