

Eloquence in Trouble

The Poetics and Politics of Complaint in Rural Bangladesh

JAMES M. WILCE

New York Oxford
Oxford University Press

1998

CONTENTS

Transcription Conventions, xv

Cast of Key Characters Presented, xvii

1. Troubling Ourselves with Bangla Troubles Talk, 3
 2. Listening in Matlab: Where Troubles Talk Led Me, 26
 3. Signs and Selfhood, 34
 4. Personhood: The “I” in the Complaint, 44
 5. Self and Indexicals: Language and Locus of Control, 80
 6. Learning to Tell Troubles: Socialization of Crying and Troubles Telling, 104
 7. Icons and Icon Indexes: Complaint Practices and Local Views, 119
 8. Troubles Talk and Social Conflict, 134
 9. Interacting with Practitioners, 154
 10. Metacomplaints: Conflict, Resistance, and Metacommunication, 182
 11. The Pragmatics of Madness: Performance and Resistance, 200
 12. Legitimacy, Illegitimacy, and Madness in Bangladesh, 224
 13. Troubles Talk and Its Troubling (and Troubled) Eloquence, 233
- Appendix: Transcribing Matlab Speech, 243
- Notes, 249
- References, 275
- Index and Glossary, 293