

Genoa, Rapallo, and European Reconstruction in 1922

Edited by

CAROLE FINK

AXEL FROHN

and

JÜRGEN HEIDEKING

GERMAN HISTORICAL INSTITUTE

Washington, D.C.

CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY PRESS

Cambridge

New York Port Chester Melbourne Sydney

Contents

Illustrations List	vii
Maps List	viii
Abbreviations List	ix
 Introduction	 1
1 Beyond Revisionism: The Genoa Conference of 1922 Carole Fink	11
2 The Genoa Conference of 1922: Lloyd George and the Politics of Recognition Andrew Williams	29
3 A Rainy Day, April 16, 1922: The Rapallo Treaty and the Cloudy Perspective for German Foreign Policy Peter Krüger	49
4 Reparations in 1922 Sally Marks	65
5 Germany and the United States: The Concept of World Economic Interdependence Manfred Berg	77
6 American Policy Toward Debts and Reconstruction at Genoa, 1922 Stephen A. Schuker	95
7 French Plans for the Reconstruction of Russia: A History and Evaluation Anne Hogenhuis-Seliverstov	131
8 The Oil Problem and Soviet-American Relations at the Genoa Conference of 1922 A. A. Fursenko	149
9 Italy at the Genoa Conference: Italian-Soviet Commercial Relations Giorgio Petracchi	159
10 The European Policy of Czechoslovakia on the Eve of the Genoa Conference of 1922 Frank Hadler	171

11	The Genoa Conference and the Little Entente Magda Ádám	187
12	The Role of Switzerland and the Neutral States at the Genoa Conference Antoine Fleury	201
13	The Genoa Conference and Japan: A Lesson in Great-Power Diplomacy Takako Ueta	217
	Maps	227
	Appendix	233
	Selected Bibliography	237
	Contributors	252
	Index	253