

Stefan Ihrig

Justifying Genocide

Germany and the Armenians
'from Bismarck to Hitler

Harvard University Press

Cambridge, Massachusetts, and London, England 2016

Contents

Prologue: Franz Werfel Meets Adolf Hitler	1
Introduction: Questions of Genocide?	4
PART I Armenian Blood Money	17
1 Beginnings under Bismarck	19
2 Germany and the Armenian Horrors of the 1890s	31
3 The Triumph of German Anti-Armenianism	59
4 From Revolution to Abyss	82
PART II Under German Noses	91
5 Notions of Total War	93
6 Dispatches from Erzurum	105
7 "Interlude of the Gods"	139
8 What Germany Could Have Known	157
PART III Debating Genocide	191
9 War Crimes, War Guilt, and Whitewashing	193
10 Assassination in Berlin, 1921	226
11 Trial in Berlin	234
12 The Victory of Justificationalism	270

PART IV	The Nazis and the Armenian Genocide	299
13	Racial Discourse and the Armenians	301
14	The Nazis' New Turkey	320
15	No Smoking Gun	333
	Epilogue: Armenian Writings on the Wall	359
	Notes	373
	Acknowledgments	449
	Index	451