

Private sector development

Policies and programs for the Pacific islands

Andrew McGregor

Mark Sturton

Sitiveni Halapua

☞ An East-West Center Book
Pacific Islands Development Program
East-West Center

Contents

List of Tables	viii
List of Figures	ix
Exchange Rates	x
Foreword	xi
Preface	xiii
Acknowledgments	xv
Acronyms	xvii
Map of the Pacific Islands	xx
1. Economic Overview	1
Economic Growth	1
Sectoral Structure	2
Terms of Trade	4
Structure of Exports	6
The External Sector	8
Investment, Savings, and Foreign Transfers	10
Employment	12
2. Trade and Investment Performance in the Global Context	15
The Relative Performance of the Region in the Global Context	16
The Direction of Pacific Islands Trade	19
An Appropriate Trade and Investment Strategy for the Pacific Islands	21
Commodity Price Fluctuations and Their Effect on Pacific Islands Development	23
Prospects for the 1990s	26
3. The Macroeconomic Environment	29
Financial Stability	30
A Competitive Price and Cost Structure	34
Trade Policy	39
Counter-cyclical Policy	40

4. The Microeconomic Policy Environment	45
Incentives	46
The Regulatory Framework	52
The Risk Climate	58
5. The Financing of Private Sector Development	65
Financial Intermediation	66
Financing of Investment	68
Financial Savings	77
Financial Resource Allocation	82
6. The Institutional Environment	89
Trade and Investment	90
Small Business Enterprise Support Organizations (ESOs)	95
Institutions to Facilitate Private Investment in Agriculture	100
Institutional Support Arrangements for the Development of Export Manufacturing	114
Development Finance Institutions (DFIs)	116
7. Selected Trade and Investment Opportunities	123
Trade and Investment Research	123
Horticultural and Agricultural Niche Market Exports	123
Marine Exports	132
Export Manufacturing	137
Tourism	142
Minerals	149
8. Creating Business Opportunities Through Privatization	155
Objectives of Privatization	156
Scope for Privatization in the Pacific Island Countries	158
Basic Methods of Privatization and Their Scope in the Islands	159
Planning for Privatization	165
Role of International Agencies and Aid Donors in the Privatization Process	166
Financing Privatization	169
9. An Integrated Program for Private Sector Development	171
Provision of Finance Facilities to the Private Sector	172
Export Market Development and National Marketing Support Services	175
Enterprise Support Organizations (ESOs) and Entrepreneurial Development	179
Manufacturing Development	185
Public Utility Services	187

Technology Acquisition	189
Agricultural Development	190
Fisheries Development	193
Tourism Development	196
Privatization Programs	198
Economic Policy Reforms	201
A Program for Private Sector Development	202
10. Major Findings and Recommendations	207
Introduction	207
Diversification	207
Macroeconomic Policy	208
Entrepreneurs	208
Government	208
Extension Service	209
Savings	209
Financial Intermediation	209
Development Banks	210
Venture Capital	210
Small Business	210
Exports	211
Investment Opportunities	211
International Agencies	212
Integrated Private Sector Development Program	213
Statistical Appendixes	215
Private Sector Project References	229
Index	237