

LOCAL AUTHORITY BORROWING PAST, PRESENT AND —— FUTURE ——

SIR HARRY PAGE, MA(Admin.), IPFA

*Formerly City Treasurer, Manchester
Past President of the Chartered Institute of Public Finance and Accountancy*

London
GEORGE ALLEN & UNWIN
Boston Sydney

CONTENTS

Preface	page xiii
Acknowledgements	xv
List of Abbreviations	xvi

PART ONE PRELIMINARY CONSIDERATIONS

Introduction: Aims and problems	3
1 Local Government Areas in England and Wales – a note on their Origins and Development	16

PART TWO HISTORICAL SURVEY

First Period: 1530–1830: The First Local Government Services and the Emergence of Borrowing	35
2 Roads and Bridges	37
3 Turnpike Trusts and Navigations – The First Statutory Borrowing Provisions	49
4 The Coming of the Poor Law	69
5 Borrowing in the Boroughs and Major Parishes	90
6 Borrowing in the Counties	98
Conclusions for the Period up to 1830	106
Second Period: 1830–1930: The Evolution of Structured Local Government and of the Associated Borrowing Codes	109
7 The Opening Phase	111
8 The Accretion of Services and their Associated Borrowing Facilities	120
9 The Local Loans Act 1875	146
10 The Democratization of Local Government	152
11 The Turn of the Century	157
Third Period: 1930–1984: Consolidation, Evolution and Dissolution	167
12 The Local Government Act 1933	169
13 The 'Short-Term' Revolution	176
14 The Further Reorganization	190

PART THREE BORROWING INSTRUMENTS AND ASSOCIATED TECHNIQUES: AN HISTORICAL ANALYSIS

15	Mortgages and Related Instruments	209
16	Annuities, Debentures and Tontines	222
17	Stock	241
18	Temporary (Deposit) Loan Receipts	254
19	Money Bills and Promissory Notes	261
20	Bonds	278
21	The Public Works Loan Commissioners	298
22	Miscellaneous Sources of Capital Finance	315
23	Management and Amortization of Debt	329

PART FOUR ANALYSIS AND CONCLUSIONS

24	Basic Principles	355
25	The Standardization of Local Authority Borrowing Practices	368
	Epilogue: Is there a future for Local Authority Borrowing?	380
	Select Bibliography	382
	Citation References of Statutes	385
	Index	394