

JOHN MIHEVC

THE MARKET TELLS THEM SO

The World Bank
and Economic Fundamentalism
in Africa

ZED Books Ltd
London and New Jersey

Third World Network
Penang and Accra

TABLE OF CONTENTS

LIST OF ABBREVIATIONS	3
------------------------------	----------

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS	4
-------------------------	----------

PART I

INTRODUCTION	9
---------------------	----------

The Setting	11
-------------	----

The World Bank	12
----------------	----

The Theological Implications of a Global Economy Perspective on Ecology and Development	14
--	----

Globalization as Social Control	15
---------------------------------	----

The Fundamentalist Theology of the World Bank	16
---	----

A Theology of Self-Reliance	16
-----------------------------	----

CHAPTER ONE	21
--------------------	-----------

The Fundamentalist Theology of the World Bank

Development Discourse as Theology	22
-----------------------------------	----

Sin, Redemption and Mission	25
-----------------------------	----

Fundamentalist Discourse	26
--------------------------	----

The Theology of Structural Adjustment	27
---------------------------------------	----

Servants of the Text	29
----------------------	----

Dispensationalism	31
-------------------	----

A Theology of Sacrifice	32
-------------------------	----

Filling in the Gaps	35
---------------------	----

Justification by Correct Statement	35
------------------------------------	----

CHAPTER TWO	43
--------------------	-----------

Prelude to "The Crisis" - The World Bank and the Modernization of Africa

Introduction	43
--------------	----

The Structure of the World Bank	44
---------------------------------	----

The Modernization Paradigm	45
----------------------------	----

The New Orthodoxy	48
-------------------	----

The Development of Structural Adjustment	50
--	----

CHAPTER THREE 55
Rescheduling our Debtors

Introduction	55
Financing Exports	56
Ponzi Financing	60
Rescuing the Banks	65
The Debt Boomerang	67
The World Bank and African Debt Management	69
Myths about Sub-Saharan Africa's Debt	71
Multilateral Debt Relief Proposals	78
Conclusion	80

CHAPTER FOUR 85
The World Bank and the Structural Adjustment of Africa

The Berg Report on Sub-Saharan Africa	86
What Ails Africa	87
Exports, Imports and Exchange Rates	87
Discounting External Factors	88
Prices	89
The Size of Government	91
The Berg Report's Solution	92
Export-Growth and Comparative Advantage	93
Getting Prices Right	94
Privatization and Liberalization	95
Development Assistance and the Debt Problem	96
Debt, Aid and Policy Reform	96
Summary of Berg Report	99

PART II

CHAPTER FIVE 103
The Deepening Crisis

The Debt Crisis	105
Dealing with the Critics	108
Playing the Statistical Game	109
Crop Prices	110
Manipulating Statistics: The ECA Response	112
GDP: Weighing in Equally	114
The African Alternative Framework	115
Coopting the Heretics: From Crisis to Sustainable Growth	117
Donor Conditionality	121

Consolidating the Agenda	123
Poverty Alleviation through Adjustment	123
The Global Coalition for Africa	129
Proving Adjustment Works	133
Conclusion	134

CHAPTER SIX 141

Export-Oriented Growth, International Trade and Structural Adjustment

Introduction	141
Comparative Advantage: The Organizing Principle of International Trade	143
Outward vs. Inward-Oriented Development	144
The Assumptions of the World Bank's Export-Oriented Growth Model	147
Case Study: Ghana	155
The GATT Negotiations	165
Making Structural Adjustment Permanent	171
Conclusion	175

CHAPTER SEVEN 183

Structural Adjustment and the Environment

Debt Financed Mega-Projects	184
Export-Oriented Growth and Land Use	185
Gender, Ecology and SAPs	190
The World Bank and the Environment	191
An Alternate Approach	195

CHAPTER EIGHT 199

The Ambiguous Promise of Biotechnology

The World Bank's Biotechnology Vision	205
The Appropriation of Creation	206
The Privatization of Biogenetic Property	207
The Privatization of Research: The University-Industrial Complex	208
The Socialization of Genetic Resources	211
Consequences for Local-Level Agriculture	212
Biotechnology and the Future of Ghana's Cocoa Industry	213
Counter Bio-Revolution	219

PART III

CHAPTER NINE	225
African Churches and the Crisis of Structural Adjustment
The Theological Response of African Churches to SAPs	226
Maldevelopment	227
Colonialism and Neo-colonialism	228
The Churches as Instruments of Recolonization	231
Biblical and Ethical Perspectives on Debt and Structural Adjustment	232
African Churches and Northern Partners	243
The Crisis in Leadership in the Churches	244
Self-Reliance and Delinking	244
Lay Centres in Africa: Training for Transformation	245
Advocacy, Mobilization and Conscientization	247
Conclusion	249
CHAPTER TEN	253
Structural Adjustment and Women: The Response of the Churches
The World Bank and Women in Development	254
UNICEF: Adjustment with a Human Face	257
Gender-based Research on SAPs	257
Church-based Women's Organizations in Africa	261
The All Africa Conference of Churches' Women's Desk	262
The Church as Oppressor of Women	263
Theology and Economics	264
Theology and Structural Adjustment	265
Women's Resistance	267
CONCLUSION	273
BIBLIOGRAPHY	281
INDEX	307