

AFRICAN POLITICS

Crises and Challenges

J. GUS LIEBENOW

Indiana University Press
Bloomington and Indianapolis

CONTENTS

PREFACE xi

- I. Introduction 1
The Nature of Political Authority in Africa, 5
- II. The Impact of Colonial Rule 13
Theories of Imperialism, 17; The General Character of European Imperialism, 20; Contrasts in Colonial Policies and Practices, 27; Balance Sheet on Colonial Rule, 37
- III. The Challenge of Nation-Building 45
Ethnic Fragmentation and Pluralism, 50; The Racial Factor in Nation-Building, 59; The Communications Factor in Nation-Building, 69; The Religious Factor in Nation-Building, 76; Alternative Strategies for Nation-Building, 86
- IV. South Africa: Apartheid and the Clash of Nationalisms 102
The Roots of Apartheid, 107; The Structures of Apartheid, 111; Prospects for Peaceful Change? 117; Government Response: The Drive toward Self-Sufficiency, 121; African Pressures for Change, 124; External Pressures on South Africa, 128
- V. The Crisis of Enduring Poverty 137
The Pursuit of Industrialization, 141; Prospects for Agriculture, 151; The Quest for Ideological Solutions, 167; Self-Reliance versus Foreign Aid, 177
- VI. The Dilemma of Political Community in the Urban Context 181
The Weakness of the Urban Political Community, 184; The Push and Pull of Rural to Urban Migration, 187; Three Types of Urbanites, 190; Insulation from the Full Urban Commitment, 194; Conflicts between Urban and National Politics, 199; The Impact of Urbanization on the Rural Sector, 202

VII.	Political Parties: The Quest for Popular Government	204
	The Concept of the Political Party in Africa, 205; Africa and the Single-Party System, 221; The Future of the Single-Party System, 229
VIII.	Military Intervention: Aberration or Way of Life?	237
	Factors Leading to Intervention, 240; The Nature of Military Regimes, 250; Evaluating Military vs. Civilian Performance, 255; Transition to Civilian Rule, 264
IX.	U.S. Policy toward Sub-Saharan Africa: Continuities and Variations	267
	The Era of African Independence, 270
NOTES		283
INDEX		298