
Capital and the State in NIGERIA

JOHN F. E. OHIORHENUAN

Contributions in Afro-American and African Studies, Number 122
Henry Louis Gates, Jr., Series Editor

GREENWOOD PRESS
New York • Westport, Connecticut • London

Contents

Tables	ix
Acknowledgment	xiii
Introduction	xv
1. Antecedents	1
2. Capitalism, Underdevelopment, and the State: A Framework for Analysis	27
3. The Accumulation Program of Nigerian Military Regimes: 1966-1979	65
4. The Accumulationist State	103
5. The State and the Control of Labor under Military Rule	133
6. The Management of Accumulation	169
7. Conclusion: Accumulation and the State in Peripheral Capitalism	207
Bibliography	223
Index	253