

Gender and Social Structure in Madagascar

Richard Huntington

Indiana University Press
Bloomington and Indianapolis

Contents

	List of Maps and Figures	ix
	Acknowledgments	xi
1.	The Bara of Madagascar	1
	Origins: Africa, Arabia, and Indonesia
	The Bara
	Economics: Cattle and Rice
	Sexual Behavior and Sexual Categories
2.	The Person	19
	Mauss and Malinowski
	Bara Idioms of Procreation
	From Mother's Womb
	To Father's Tomb
	Idioms of Death
	Idioms of Rebirth
3.	Residence and Corporation:
	Shared Values	47
	Small Groups and Freedom of Individuality
	The Bara House
	Male Ideology of Local Kin Groups

4. *Residence and Corporation:
Individual Actions* 61
- Women and Men in the Local Kin Group
Women and the Fission of Kin Groups
Women's Actions and Men's Matrification
Values, Structure, and Motivation
5. The Marriage of a Brother and Sister 78
- Bara Folktales
The Marriage of a Brother and Sister
The Children of a Brother and Sister
The Children of Sisters
6. Incest, Marriage, and Society 92
- Incest, Atonement, and Social Categories
Marriage and Cattle Exchange
Society and Biology
7. Trance and Feminine Power 113
- Ritual of Spirit Possession
Marriage and the Status of Bara Women
Beyond Local Divisions: The Cognatic Clan
Trance and the Person
8. Caveats and Conclusions 129
- Caveats
Conclusions

References / 137

Index / 145