

The U.S. Anti-Apartheid Movement

Local Activism in Global Politics

Janice Love

PRAEGER

---

PRAEGER SPECIAL STUDIES • PRAEGER SCIENTIFIC

New York • Philadelphia • Eastbourne, UK
Toronto • Hong Kong • Tokyo • Sydney

Contents

List of Tables	xi
List of Acronyms	xiii
Preface	xv
Acknowledgments	xix
1. An Overview of the Anti-Apartheid Movement	1
The International Anti-Apartheid Movement	2
Sanctions Activities	3
Direct Aid	9
Research/Publication and Education	12
The U.S. Anti-Apartheid Movement	13
Economic Sanctions Activities	21
Anti-Apartheid Campaigns in State and Local Governments	29
Conclusion	50
Note	51
2. The Sanctions Debate	53
The Potential for Economic Sanctions	53
Goals	54
South African Vulnerability to Outside Economic Pressures	58
The Kinds of Sanctions Imposed and the Number of Countries Observing Them	65
The Progressive Force Argument	70
Responses to Activist Pressures	73
Business Responses	74
United States Government Responses	80
South African Responses	84
The United Nations Response	86

Conclusions	86
Notes	87
3. Frameworks for Analysis	89
The First Framework: Indicators of Why Campaigns Succeed or Fail	89
Goals	90
Strength	91
Strategies and Tactics	92
Reaction and Opposition	92
Locus of Decision	94
Time	94
Summary	95
The Second Framework: Defining Effectiveness and Design of the Evaluation	95
Conclusion	97
Notes	97
4. The Connecticut Case Study	99
Legislative History and Implementation	100
Passage and Veto of Full Divestment Legislation	106
The Governor's Task Force on South African Investment Policy	116
Implementation of the 1982 Law	124
Summary	132
Why These Outcomes	132
The 1981 Campaign: Goals, Theory of Action, Target, Time, and Context	133
The 1981 Campaign: Strength	138
The 1981 Campaign: Strategies and Tactics	143
The 1981 Campaign: Reaction and Opposition	145
Post-Passage Reaction and Opposition: The Veto	149
The Task Force Work and Recommendations	152
Impact and Effectiveness	155
Notes	160

5. The Michigan Case Study .	161
Legislative History and Implementation	161
Early Anti-Apartheid Activism	162
Passage and Implementation of the Banking Bill	179
Passage of and Challenge to the Educational Institution Fund Bill	183
The Pension Divestment Bill	191
Why These Outcomes	197
Goals, Theory of Action, Target, Time, and Context	198
Strength, Strategies, and Tactics	203
Reaction and Opposition	210
Impact and Effectiveness	217
Notes	223
6. Conclusions	225
Comparison of the Campaign Processes	225
Goals and Theory of Action	225
Tactics, Strategy, Strength, and Opposition	227
Comparison of Outcomes and Impact	236
Conclusion	245
Appendixes	247
A. Persons Interviewed in the Research	249
B. Legislation from Connecticut, Massachusetts, and Michigan	257
Bibliography	269
Index	287
About the Author	297