

Māori and Parliament:
Diverse Strategies and Compromises

Edited by Maria Bargh

Contents

Introduction	1
Māori and Parliament: the Wider Context
Kotahitanga Basil Keane	9
Lessons from the Māori Parliament Dr Maria Bargh	17
The Māori Seats
An Inventory of Parliamentary Seats Hon. Tariana Turia	31
The Origins of the Māori Seats Dr John Wilson	37
Māori and Political Parties
Labour and Māori Hon. Shane Jones	75
The National Party and Māori Charlotte Williams	81
Breaking Barriers: Māori and New Zealand First Damian Edwards	93

Exit, Voice and Loyalty in Action: Māori Representation in the New Zealand Parliament Professor Stephen Levine and Professor Nigel S Roberts	115
---	-----

The Changing Times of MMP

What has MMP Changed? Hon. Nanaia Mahuta	151
Changes From, and the Future of, MMP Hon. Metiria Turei	161
The Māori Electorates and Agency Theory: Refocusing Debate about the Māori Seats Associate Professor Ann Sullivan and Associate Professor Janine Hayward	167
MMP: Perspectives from a Māori Member in a Māori Seat in the Māori Party Hon. Te Ururoa Flavell	181
Parliament is Moving On Hon. Sir Douglas Kidd	189

Māori in General Seats

Māori in General Seats Georgina Beyer	201
Diversity Enriches the View Simon Bridges MP	213
Generalising Māori: Māori in General Seats in the Future Colin James	219

Views on the Future
Māori and Parliament: the Future Sir Tipene O'Regan	231
The Need for a Fundamental Change Sir Ngatata Love	243
The Future: Determined to Survive Professor Whatarangi Winiata	249
Appendix	259
Contributors	273
Bibliography	277
Index	283