

A BIRD THAT FLIES WITH TWO WINGS

Kastom and state justice systems in Vanuatu

Miranda Forsyth

THE AUSTRALIAN NATIONAL UNIVERSITY

E P R E S S

Table of Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
Foreword	xi
Prologue	xv
1. 'Igat fulap rod blong hem'	1
2. The possibilities and limitations of legal pluralism	29
3. Tradition and transformation in leadership structures and conflict-management mechanisms	61
4. Mat, kava, faol, pig, buluk, woman: the operation of the kastom system in Vanuatu today	95
5. The relationship between the state and kastom systems	139
6. The problems of the existing relationship between the state and kastom systems	175
7. A typology of relationships between state and non-state justice systems	201
8. A new method of legal pluralism	249
Bibliography	267