

Political Culture and Nationalism in Malawi

Building Kwacha

Joey Power

UNIVERSITY OF ROCHESTER PRESS

Contents

List of Illustrations	vii
Acknowledgments	ix
Note on Proper Names, Spelling, and Geography	xi
Abbreviations	xiii
Introduction	1
1 Power and Authority in Early Colonial Malawi	8
2 From “Tribe” to Nation: Defending Indirect Rule	29
3 From “Tribe” to Nation: The Nyasaland African Congress	44
4 The Federal Challenge: Noncooperation and the Crisis of Confidence in Elite Politics	55
5 Building Urban Populism	75
6 Planting Populism in the Countryside	94
7 Bringing Back Banda	123
8 Prelude to Crisis: Inventing a Malawian Political Culture	136
9 Du’s Challenge: Car Accident as Metaphor for Political Violence	156
10 Crisis and Kuthana Politics	177
Legacies	203
Notes	207
Selected Bibliography	293
Index	313