

Transforming Participation?

The Politics of Development in Malawi and Ireland

Niamh Gaynor

Lecturer, School of Law and Government, Dublin City University, Ireland

palgrave
macmillan

Contents

List of Tables	ix
Preface and Acknowledgements	x
List of Abbreviations	xiii
Introduction Participation and Development – Beyond the Impasse?	1
Participation contested	4
Malawi's PRSP/MGDS and Ireland's Social Partnership	10
Methodological approach	15
The arrangement of the book	17
Part I Participation in Context
1 Globalisation, Governance and Participation	21
State legitimacy and the network state	22
States, power and civil society	29
Manufacturing civil society	34
Working with , not for : Conscientisation and organic leadership	45
Conclusion	49
2 Malawi and Ireland in a Globalised World	51
Development paradigms and pathways	52
Governance legacies	56
Citizens or subjects?: Political culture	61
Conclusion	69
3 Analysing Participation: A Theoretical Framework of Analysis	70
Institutional frameworks	71
Power and discourse	74
Communication and decision-making	77
Representation and democracy	85
Conclusion	88

Part II Participation in Practice

4	The Dynamics of Participation in Malawi and Ireland	93
	Institutional design: Differential access	93
	Internalising discourses: Excluding members	106
	Communication within: Restricting expression	120
	Communication without: The power of public debate	123
	Consensus decision-making: True or false?	128
	Conclusion: Enablers and constraints to transformative participation	133
5	The State and Participation in Malawi and Ireland	136
	Layering governance: State participation	137
	Spinning participation: Globalised states and 'invisible' governments	140
	Contracting participation: Securing domestic legitimacy	147
	Conclusion: Spinning participation, contracting partners, diluting democracy?	162
6	Civil Society and Participation in Malawi and Ireland	165
	Transforming participation: Initial engagement	166
	Disciplining participation: Ongoing engagement	173
	Transforming participation?: MEJN as organic leader?	193
	Conclusion: Janus-headed NGOs and transformative participation	200

Part III Transforming Participation?: Conclusion

7	Transforming Participation?: The Politics of Development in Malawi and Ireland	205
	Transforming participation: Some practical lessons	207
	Transforming participation: Some conceptual lessons	213
	Transforming participation, choosing our path	219
	Notes	222
	Bibliography	227
	Index	242