

Uniting Africa

Building Regional Peace and Security Systems

DAVID J. FRANCIS
University of Bradford, UK

ASHGATE

Contents

List of Figures and Tables	ix
Acknowledgements	xi
Acronyms and Abbreviations	xiii
Introduction	1
1 Struggle for Unity in Africa: The Dream and the Realism	11
Introduction	11
Pan-Africanism and African Unity	11
Kwame Nkrumah and the 'United States of Africa': The Dream and Realism	16
Establishment of the Organisation of African Unity: A Concrete Symbol of Pan-African Unity	21
From Addis Ababa to Lusaka: The Realism of the African Union	24
Conclusion	31
2 African State System: The Bane of Disunity	33
Introduction	33
Defining and Theorising the State in Africa	34
Characteristics of the State System: Crisis and Mythology of the African State	37
Failure, Collapse and Reconstruction of the African State: Implications for Building Regional Peace and Security Systems	54
Conclusion	56
3 Africa at War Against Itself: Civil Wars and New Security Threats	59
Introduction	59
Wars and Armed Conflicts in Africa: Mapping the Conflict Scenario	60
Conflict Analysis and the Generations of Wars and Armed Conflicts in Africa	63
New Security Threats in Africa	86
Conclusion	90

4	Regional Organisations and Humanitarian Intervention in Complex Political Emergencies in Africa	91
	Introduction	91
	Regional Organisations and the United Nations Charter on Peace and Security in Africa	92
	Typology of Interventions and External Peace and Conflict Stabilisation Mechanisms Prescribed for Africa	98
	Fire Next Door: Regional Security Complex and the Challenges of Complex Political Emergencies in Africa	102
	Humanitarian Intervention in Complex Political Emergencies in Africa	107
	Security Regionalism and the Emerging Regional 'Responsibility to Protect' in Complex Political Emergencies	113
	Conclusion	115
5	OAU – African Union: Experiment in Regional Security, Peacekeeping and Peace Support Operations	117
	Introduction	117
	The OAU and Regionalism in Africa: A Framework for Regional Order, Peace and Security	118
	OAU Architecture for Peace and Security: The Adventure into Peace Support Operations	121
	OAU-United Nations and Sub-regional Organisations Co-operative Security for Peace and Security	125
	From Inherited Failure to the New African Union: Emerging Structure and Norm for Peace and Security	128
	Regional Hegemons and the Maintenance of Peace and Security in Africa	132
	Conclusion	136
6	New Theatre of Wars and Civil Conflicts: Evolution of Security Regionalism and Peacekeeping Capacity in West Africa	139
	Introduction	139
	Political Economy of West Africa	140
	ECOWAS Economic Integration and Coping with Regional Security Threats	143
	ECOMOG Experiment in Peacekeeping and Conflict Management in West Africa	150
	Building a Regional Peace and Security System: ECOMOG as a Permanent Mechanism for Regional Peacekeeping and Conflict Management	172
	Conclusion	174

7	Promise and Disappointment: Building Regional Peace and Security Systems in Southern Africa	181
	Introduction	181
	Political Economy of Southern Africa	183
	Regional Security Threats: Building Regional Architecture for Peace and Security	188
	Institutionalising Regional Systems for Peace and Security: SADC Organ for Politics, Defence and Security	192
	SADC Coalition of Willing States Peacekeeping and Conflict Management in the Democratic Republic of Congo	196
	SADC's Regional Conflict Management and Resolution: Problems, Challenges and Opportunities	204
	UN-OAU / AU-SADC Co-operative Peacemaking and Peacebuilding in the DRC	209
	Conclusion	212
8	From Famine to Sustainable Peace: Building Regional Peace and Preventive Diplomacy Systems in the Horn of Africa	215
	Introduction	215
	Political Economy of the Horn of Africa	216
	From Famine to Regional Peace and Security Architecture: Inter-Governmental Authority on Development (IGAD)	222
	IGAD and Preventive Diplomacy in the Horn of Africa: Peacemaking in Sudan and Somalia	225
	Lessons From IGAD's Civil War Peace Settlements and Preventive Diplomacy	232
	United Nations, African Union and External Actors in IGAD-led Peace Processes in the Horn of Africa	235
	Conclusion	237
	Conclusion	239
	Bibliography	245
	Index	265