

MIXED BLOOD

Intermarriage and Ethnic Identity in Twentieth-Century America

PAUL R. SPICKARD

THE UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN PRESS

Contents

Acknowledgments	x
1. The Problem of Inter marriage	3
Ideas about Inter marriage	6
Ideas about Ethnicity	9
The Scope of This Study	17
Terms	20
Part I. Japanese Americans
2. Background and Images: Fu Manchu and Charlie Chan	25
Issei, Nisei, Sansei	26
Changing Images of Japanese Americans	35
Japanese Americans' Ideas about Non-Japanese and about Inter marriage	42
3. Dimensions of Inter marriage: Old Barriers Fall	47
Generations and Inter marriage	47
Japanese American Reactions to Inter marriage	61
Other Americans' Reactions to Inter marriage with Japanese	70
Regional Differences in Inter marriage	73
Inter marriage and Social Class	84
4. Issues and Interpretations: Japanese, American, or Something in Between?	94
Inter marriage within the Japanese Group	94
A Hierarchy of Choice	103

Contents

Outmarriage and Divorce	106
Children of Japanese American Inter-marriage	108
Summary of Part I	118
Part II. Madam Butterfly Revisited	121
5. American Men and Japanese Women after World War II	123
GIs and Japanese Women	124
Dating and Marrying	131
Adjustment to America	138
Children of War Brides in America	147
Konketsuji : Mixed Children in Japan	151
Summary of Part II	158
Part III. Jewish Americans	159
6. Background and Images: Shikse and Jewish Mother	161
Jewish Inter-marriage in the Ancient World	161
Inter-marriage and Jewish-Gentile Relations in Europe	165
American Jewish Inter-marriage: Sephardim and German Jews	168
The Orthodox Invasion	172
Mutual Images	173
7. Dimensions of Inter-marriage: Separate Identity amid Growing Acceptance	180
The Generations and Inter-marriage	180
Jews Respond to Inter-marriage	185
Gentiles Respond to Inter-marriage with Jews	197
Regional Differences in Inter-marriage	199
Class Differences in Inter-marriage	200
Denominational Differences in Inter-marriage	203
8. Issues and Interpretations: According to the Halakhah	207
The Inter-married Personality	207
Cleavages within the Group	211
The Hierarchy	216
Inter-marriage and Conversion	217
Inter-marriage and Divorce	223
What of the Children?	224
Summary of Part III	229

Part IV. Black Americans	233
9. Background and Images: The Core of the Heart	235
Miscegenation before the Civil War	235
Mutual Images	252
10. Dimensions of Intermarriage: The Wall Remains	268
Black Intermarriage over Time and Generation	268
White Reactions to Interracial Marriage	283
Black Reactions to Interracial Marriage	297
Regional Differences in Intermarriage	305
Class Differences in Interracial Marriage	307
11. Issues and Interpretations: Passing Is Passé	312
The Psychology of Interracial Mating	312
Varieties of Black Americans	314
Hierarchies of Choice	324
Interracial Marriage and Divorce	327
Mulattoes and Passing	329
Summary of Part IV	340
12. Conclusion	343
Some Comparisons	343
Intermarriage Theories Reconsidered	361
Intermarriage and Ethnic Identity	369
Appendix A: Summary of States' Laws on Interracial Marriage	374
Appendix B: Interracial Family Organizations	376
Notes	377
Bibliography	474
Index	523