

Witchcraft and Colonial Rule in
Kenya, 1900–1955

KATHERINE LUONGO

Northeastern University

CAMBRIDGE
UNIVERSITY PRESS

Contents

List of Photographs	page x
Acknowledgments	xi
1. Introduction	i
2. Clans and Councils, Caravans and Conquest, Cosmology and Colonialism: Ukambani in the Late Nineteenth and Early Twentieth Centuries	29
3. Understanding Uoi , Uwe , and Kithitu in Ukambani	45
4. The “Cosmology” of the Colonial State	71
5. The Wakamba Witch Trials: A Witch-Murder in 1930s Kenya	98
6. Witchcraft, Murder, and Death Sentences after Rex v. Kumwaka	129
7. The World of Oathing and Witchcraft in Mau Mau-era Machakos	158
8. Cleansing Ukambani Witches	183
9. Epilogue	207
Glossary	219
Bibliography	221
Index	237