

Limits of Adjustment in Africa

THE EFFECTS OF ECONOMIC LIBERALIZATION, 1986-94

EDITED BY POUL ENGBERG-PEDERSEN
PETER GIBBON • PHIL RAIKES
& LARS UDSHOLT

Centre for Development Research
Copenhagen
in association with
JAMES CURREY
Oxford
HEINEMANN
Portsmouth (N.H.)

Contents

Preface	ix
---------------	----

Acknowledgements	xi
------------------------	----

PART ONE

STRUCTURAL ADJUSTMENT IN AFRICA:

A SURVEY OF THE EXPERIENCE

By Poul Engberg-Pedersen, Peter Gibbon, Phil Raikes & Lars Udsholt

1. Development Problems and Adjustment in Sub-Saharan Africa	3
1.1 What is Structural Adjustment?	3
1.2 Structural Adjustment in Africa	4
1.3 Problems in Assessing Structural Adjustment	7
1.4 Features of the Five Case-Study Countries	10
2. Adjustment, Aid Relations and Governance	15
2.1 Introduction	15
2.2 Evolution of the Reform Packages	15
2.3 Aid Conditionality and Coordination	18
2.4 Ownership, Accountability and Transparency	20
2.5 Governance Issues	22
3. The Effects of Structural Adjustment on Key Aspects of Development in Sub-Saharan Africa	24
3.1 Macroeconomic and Structural Issues	24
3.2 Agriculture under Structural Adjustment	30
3.3 Industry	37
3.4 The Informal 'Sector' and Informal Economic Activities	42
3.5 Public Sector Reform	45
3.6 Social Services: Health and Education	52
3.7 Poverty and Equity during Structural Adjustment in Africa	56
3.8 Adjustment and Gender	60
3.9 The Environment	64
4. Beyond Structural Adjustment: National Capacity and International Support	66
4.1 Summary of the Experience	66
4.2 Elements of Long-term Development in Sub-Saharan Africa	68
4.3 International Support	72

PART TWO
COUNTRY STUDIES 79

BURKINA FASO by Mike Speirs 81

1. Structural Development Issues in Burkina Faso	85
2. History and Objectives of Structural Adjustment in Burkina Faso	89
3. Effects of Structural Adjustment on Key Development Indicators	99
4. Agricultural Sector Adjustment	111
5. Adjustment in other Sectors	120
6. Equity, Poverty and Social Services	124
7. Environmental Trends and Issues	131
8. Concluding Remarks	133

GHANA by Eboe Hutchful 141

1. Introduction: Background to Adjustment	143
2. The Adjustment Agenda	147
3. Macroeconomic Performance under the ERP	150
4. Agriculture	158
5. Industry	169
6. Mining	174
7. Forestry	177
8. Public Sector Reform	179
9. Poverty, Wages and Employment	190
10. Health and Education	197
11. Threats to the Environment	204
12. Conclusion: From Adjustment to Adjustment-with-Democracy	206

TANZANIA by Phil Raikes & Peter Gibbon 215

1. Structural Development Issues in Tanzania prior to Adjustment	218
2. Structural Adjustment in Tanzania: History and Objectives	222
3. Overall and Macroeconomic Effects of Structural Adjustment	229
4. Agriculture	251
5. Formal Sector Manufacturing and Mining	270
6. Informal Economic Activities	275
7. Poverty	281
8. The Social Sectors	286
9. Public Sector Reforms	291
10. Environmental Issues	298
11. Conclusions	301

UGANDA by E.A. Brett	309
1. Structural Adjustment, Efficiency and Equity in Uganda	311
2. The Development Problem in Uganda	312
3. Macroeconomic Policy and Performance	314
4. Rebuilding Productive Capacity	328
5. The Politics of the Adjustment Process: Ownership, Dialogue and Consent	338
6. Conclusions: Efficiency, Equity and Autonomy in Uganda	340

ZIMBABWE by Peter Gibbon 347

1. Introduction	349
2. History and Objectives of Zimbabwean Adjustment	350
3. Macroeconomic Developments	358
4. Agriculture	364
5. Industry	371
6. Mining	375
7. Poverty	379
8. The Social Sectors	383
9. Public Sector Reforms	387
10. The Environment	390
11. Summary and Conclusion	393

PART THREE

OVERVIEW OF THE DEBATE 399

The Debate on Structural Adjustment in Africa by Knud Erik Svendsen

1. Background	401
2. Major Controversies	402
3. The Major Contributions	404
4. Concluding Remarks	419

Index	422
--------------------	-----