

AFRICA

in the 1990s and Beyond

U.S. Policy Opportunities and Choices

Edited by

ROBERT I. ROTBERG

A World Peace Foundation Study

REFERENCE PUBLICATIONS, INC.

Contents

Preface	1
List of Tables, Figures, and Charts	4
1. A New U.S. Policy Toward Africa Robert I. Rotberg	7
2. The Making of U.S. Policy Toward Africa Helen Kitchen	14
3. Sub-Saharan Africa: Economic Deterioration or Rehabilitation? Reginald Herbold Green and Michael Faber	28
4. The Debt Problem in Sub-Saharan Africa Causes, Consequences, Possible Solutions John Underwood	73
5. Population, Resources, and Famine in Sub-Saharan Africa Mohamed T. El-Ashry and Dorsey Berger	112
6. The Potential Impact of AIDS in Africa Albert Henn and Charles Myers	139
7. Friends and Foes: American Policy in North Africa Lisa Anderson	168
8. Gorbachev's African Policy Mark N. Katz	189

9. Security, Ideology, and Development on Africa's Horn David Laitin	204
10. U.S. Policy Toward South and Southern Africa Robert I. Rotberg	220
11. Armed Conflict and Competition in Africa Kenneth W. Grundy	242
12. Africa's Ethnic Conflicts and Their Implications for U.S. Policy Donald Rothchild	265
The Authors	286
Index	292